Super-Vision

Though one picture is rumored to be worth a thousand words, inflation and the increasing consumer favor of visual media are destined to alter that estimate. During the next year pictures will prove well worth ten thousand words and quite possibly a billion dollars as a consumer item.

Audio-visual units already scheduled for home and industry uses will be readily available from at least three domestic manufacturers and as many foreign firms. These promise to make television sets already in homes a kind of visual phonograph by giving individuals the ability to program their own pictorial entertainment as easily as they now may choose recorded material in place of radio broadcasts.

With the arrival of a-v units, the music industry faces a challenge unlike any it has seen before. Early indications, though, show that the business will be able not only to face this, but turn the opening to its advantage.

The challenge is one of competition. Software for the a-v systems will pit musical entertainment against programmed movies, plays, educational and informative subjects—a wealth of material offering greater variety and wider competition than that faced in the radio or recording media.

Therefore, while the equipment offers new means of gaining exposure for material and artists, the industry must prepare to make early entry into a-v before channels are glutted with non-musical material as the established ware.

What a-v could mean to music is boundless. The packaging of full-length stage shows, operas and tv styled artist specials are obvious first steps. The "collected hits" album with many stars from a single label could provide feature viewing in a-v. And film soundtrack highlights are ready-made shows with hit songs accompanied by footage from hit movies.

Beyond the public package, the a-v system could turn the sales convention presentation into a take-home item for both sales and promotion representatives and might easily be turned into a "sampler" album for public marketing and the promotion of album product on record as well.

The application of music to visual media is not new to the industry. Moves within the past few years have already shown the strength of combining audio with visual entertainment. The movie soundtrack that once featured music as a passive contribution has been preempted by film music attractions such as "Mrs. Robinson" or "Raindrops Keep Fallin' on My Head" which have promoted films through non-visual exposure; and even collections of rock are important as incentive for viewing an "Easy Rider" or "Zabriskie Point." The latest movie wave virtually turns the table with music-first features on the lines of "Woodstock" or "Let It Be."

Television has also shown the value of musical entertainers as visual attractions through successes of Tom Jones, Glen Campbell, Andy Williams, Dean Martin and the new Ray Stevens weekly; or the one show specials by Elvis Presley or the Supremes & Temptations.

This a-v outlet is too valuable a tool to be taken passingly. Music firms are urged to begin thinking very seriously of individual applications to capitalize early. Begin thinking of the artists and material which are best suited for the medium of the home-screen, and of the properties that could best benefit from this personal medium. Look into the contractual end of this new phenomenon and how it relates to artists and manufacturers. And get ready for day it all breaks loose. Work those words into pictures.

Fox Agency Lowers Commission Charges

NEW YORK — The Harry Fox Agency Inc., publishers agent and trustee, has reduced its commission rate on mechanical royalty collections for publishers. According to Al Berman, managing director of the publishers agent and trustee agency, rates have been cut from 3 1/2 to 3 1/4 percent for major volume publishers and from 5 to 4 1/2 percent for those whose annual mechanicals amount to less than $25,000. Berman termed this particularly significant during an era when virtually every other price change is upward."

Proceeds of the commissions charged member publishing firms cover all costs of the agency, including auditing, legal activities, salaries and all overhead and office maintenance.

The rate decrease, which became effective July 1, 1970, ends a period of more than 20 years under the previous rates.

FRONT COVER:

A little over a year ago there were three musicians in separate (and competitive) bands playing the Flint and Detroit, Michigan, areas: a lead guitarist/vocalist named Mark Farner, Mel Schacher on bass, and a drummer (and sometimes vocalist) named Don Brewer. DJ and rock performer, Terry Knight, brought the three forces together and Grand Funk Railroad was born.

Dwarfed under the shadows of mountainous amplifiers, the trio has gone on to become one of Capitol Record's most outstanding financial ventures. Already having cut three best-selling albums (the second of which, "Closer To Home", won RIAA million-dollar certification this week) the group plays constantly to sold-out halls, expecting a potential gross of $2,000,000 on concerts by the end of this, their first year together. Their birthday present from Capitol: their likenesses the world's largest billboard, in Times Square—a first for the space which is usually used for theatre and consumer product ads.

Gold For Funk

NEW YORK — Capitol Records' Grand Funk Railroad, have received RIAA Certification of $1 Million in sales for their second album, "Grand Funk."

Certification of the album comes on the first anniversary of the group's existence. They made their first major appearance on July 4, 1969.

Moderate Thinking Surfaces In New Hits; Points Up 'Common Ground' Reevaluation

NEW YORK — Polarization in musical thought has for some time reflected the extremes of thought in this nation. The "Street Fighting Man" audiences and the "Okie From Muskogee" throngs have been locking horns frequently with each faction barring play of hits from the opposition. However, the growing frequency of appearance by hits of a more moderate ilk shows a growing mellowness, a willingness to concede that neither extreme is entirely correct and that communication is more important than inculcation.

When underground radio thrived as a means to express political involvement for the young, liberal audiences rejoiced in being able to hear songs and artists whose work was too controversial to be aired on establishment waves. The conservative element reacted, through "Open Letter to a Teenage Son" messages. And the controversy was on.

In the last two years or more, programming has frequently been offered new material from either camp, but only a small taste of middle-ground works. However, in recent weeks, a handful of hits have laid groundwork for neither strictly right nor left statement.

Understanding

The new tale is one of understanding in areas of dress, morality, political leaning and an overall philosophy of individualism.

Crosby, Stills, Nash & Young's "Teach Your Children" arrived in the top twenty singles though the group's message has altered from an "our generation" aura. C,S,N&Y here express the statement that each generation has its code and neither the one taught to it nor by it is THE ONLY CORRECT philosophy. In the end, "feed them on your dreams . . . just look at them and sigh/and know they love you."

More to the point is Ray Stevens' latest chart single, "America, Communicate With Me." As the title notes, communication is the point "somewhere in the middle of two extremes without a plan." This too marks a moderation for the composer/singer who earlier had exposure cut out from under him by pressure at many radio stations which removed "Mr. Businessman" from playlists.

Neither of these is really a first, and examples of inter-generational entreaties can be found as far back as "Get Together" in its first release. The record almost heralded this new birth of moderate thinking when it gained adult notice in commercials and was re-released last year to teen and adult approval.

As always, the Beatles can be cited as forerunners, having stirred comment with "Revolution" as a non-political involvement statement.

And Johnny Cash, although making headlines by refusing to perform "Okie From Muskogee," avoided identification with "Street Fighting Man" expression in "What is Truth?"

The Cash questions themselves stir memories of Ed Ames wondering "Who Will Answer?" that considered the generational breakdown and the apathy that accented each extreme.

Greater Frequency

However, the space between these releases made each an isolated case for moderation and understanding. Now, the Beatles take advice to "in times of trouble, let it be" and they are joined by bridges over troubled waters and the current hits to point up greater maturity and thought on the part of composers dealing political and social matters.

With moderation though, comes the notion of "selling out," especially since the public has become increasingly aware that only ultra moves make the headlines. In spite of the notion that only an extreme move will win recognition for a movement, however, moderation should prove successful through "selling in."

The "Okie" in Muskogee will never hear underground material on his radio station, nor will his favorites gain attention through underground turntables.

The across-the-board action that is available to a more thoughtful approach has already created inroads to both segments of listeners for songs that deal more objectively with the problems facing the nation. This marks an extremely important beginning. And the times, they are still a 'changin'.

RCA & Kirshner Mass Efforts In Dante Market/Promo Drive

NEW YORK — Release last week of Ron Dante's first single has formed a focal point for RCA and Kirshner Records to key on in launching a massive series of drives on behalf of the artist. Known to few by name, Dante has gained anonymous fame as the lead voice with both the Archies and Cuff Links.

Now, the Kirshner and RCA labels will be working to make Dante's internal industry reputation one of consumer renown. The companies have, with release of his "Let Me Bring You Up Single," massed a simultaneous marketing, advertising, promotion and publicity drives backing the artist's performance and his first album which goes into release this week.

"This is a virtually unique phenomenon," said Joe D'Imperio, division vice president for popular music, in announcing RCA's marketing plans. "The name Ron Dante is unknown, yet his voice is familiar to many millions of record buyers who have made smash hit recordings of material by the Archies and the Cuff Links' recording of 'Tracy.' "

D'Imperio said the total campaign will be as extensive as those employed by RCA to launch the Archies and the Monkees. He added: "Dante, via the Archies, had 1969's worldwide best-selling "Sugar, Sugar," and we are aware that Dante has an even bigger future as himself which is the reason we have mounted so extensive a campaign."

Kirshner, who made Dante the voice of the Archies, said: "Ron certainly has earned the opportunity to prove

NEW YORK — Famous Music Corp. and Chappell Music U.K. Ltd. have agreed to extend the life of their joint international publishing company, Famous/Chappell, for a period of five years beyond the original termination date of the agreement.

Ember Planning U.S. Invasion

HOLLYWOOD — Ember Records, one of England's most profitable indie labels, will be distributed in the U.S. within the next three to six months, according to Jeff Kruger, president of the label. Kruger, presently in the U.S. to negotiate a national distribution deal through a U.S. based firm, has nine acts which he feels could be the nucleus for his label's entry into the U.S. market. They include Desmond Dekker and the Aces (whose "Israelites" side was a #1 record on Uni last summer), Blonde on Blonde (formerly released thru Janus), Judy Rogers (whose "Wedding" disk on Phillips was a huge chart item in England and throughout the continent), Lee Lynch (winner of the Coupe D'Europe Knockke) and Mickey Stevenson (former Motown producer who has just cut a vocal album in the states for world wide distribution through Ember Records, Ltd.) In addition Kruger has two hard rock acts, Black Velvet and Back Street Band; male singer Alan Lake and fem vocalist Linda Thorsom, co-star of the "Avengers" TV series.

Previously Kruger, whose entertainment complex includes a music publishinf group (Sparta Florida Ltd.), a film company (Hillbrow Productions Ltd.) and a leading pop nightclub in England (The Temple at the Flamingo) had set independent label contracts for each of the Ember Ltd. artists. His plans now involve utilization of American producers with several of his acts. Linda Thorsson, for example, recently cut her first LP in Hollywood with Leon Ware of the Marc Gordon office and Mickey Stevenson as coproducers.

Aside from Kruger's English firms, he jointly owns (with Eddie Barclay) a French publishing firm (Editions Musicales Catalogue), is involved with an Italian publishing combine (Internation Music of Italy, IMI) and is represented with two American publishing arms (Kenwood Music, Inc., BMI and Hillbrow Music, Inc., ASCAP).

Kruger formed Ember Records in England nine years ago. Discoveries and artists include: Dave Clark Five, Chad and Jeremy, Matt Monro, Anthony Newley, Peter Sellers, John Barry and Vic Damone. Kruger "discovered" Glen Campbell for England where Campbell was, until recently, an Ember (not Capitol) artist. Last year Kruger clocked more than 300,000 miles, visiting 16 countries (including the U.S.) on a bi-monthly basis.

Aside from his current major project, the introduction of Ember Records as a U.S. label, Kruger is attempting to attract European acts for Ember Ltd. He recently recorded two French performers in Paris with French arrangers and musicians.

New Appointments At Paramount Further 'Total Responsibility'

NEW YORK — The Paramount Records division of Famous Music Corp., a Gulf+Western Company, has further implemented its redesign of the company's field and home office staff with additional changes announced last week by marketing vice president Joe Lyons. He said that the firm's goal is eliminating "over specialization" among field and supervisory personnel and creating a single marketing force with total responsibility for every facet of the marketing spectrum including promotion, distribution, merchandising, sales and general exploitation.

Lyons has appointed Larry Baunach (New York) and Gene Block (Los Angeles) as eastern and western field marketing directors respectively.

Baunach, who has been with Paramount since the beginning of the year as director of field merchandising, assumes additional responsibilities in the promotion area. Block joins the company from his most recent spot as national sales manager for White Whale Records. Prior to holding that position Block served as western regional sales manager for Columbia Records, and national sales manager for Warner Bros. Records.

Paramount's 13 exclusive field men will continue to work in their markets in promotion as well as being extensively involved with the label's indie distributor set-up in supervising a total marketing plan for records that they promote. The company will also maintain its four regional sales managers in New York, Chicago, Atlanta and Los Angeles.

While Baunach and Block directly supervise the marketing program for the labels, central communication of data useful in the exploitation of product will be handled by Marty Torbert, coordinator of national promotion in the new plan. Torbert will be the focal point for radio listings, sales reports and other facts concerning the movement of single and LP product. Information assembled through the coordinator's office will in turn be disseminated to staff and supervisory personnel throughout the company. Torbert will also continue in his A&R responsibilities in New York and throughout the east.

Singles sales manager Don Masters continues in his position as the key in day-to-day movement of singles product through the sales pipeline.

In commenting on the company's new approach to the marketing of product, Famous Music president Bill Gallagher emphasized that "everyone on the Paramount staff is a full time promotion man, exploiting the wares and the potential of this company."

Columbia 'Sesame Street' Caster's Sales Exceed The 250,000 Unit Mark

NEW YORK — In its first two weeks of release, Columbia's book-and-record package from the critically acclaimed television series "Sesame Street," has already sales of 250,000 copies. The label has begun rushing shipments of orders and re-orders for the LP throughout the country to meet the increasing consumer call for the album.

The original cast recording from the series is the only package for which the pictures, songs and printed material have been prepared under the direct supervision of the "Sesame Street" staff. The recording was produced by Tom Shepard of Columbia Records.

The "Sesame Street" package contains an LP with nineteen of the show's familiar songs, sung by members of the television cast, a twenty-four page, color illustrated book with lyrics to follow with the songs on the record, and a 22" x 33" full color poster which illustrates the parts of the body, utilizing the characters from "Sesame Street." The entire package carries a suggested retail list price of $4.98.

Special Merchandiser

In connection with the set, Columbia has designed a unique floor merchandiser unit now being utilized by retailers throughout the country to facilitate rapid turnover on the album. The display contains the art work used both on the "Sesame Street" television show and the Columbia album cover.

The "Sesame Street' television series went on the nation's public television stations November 10, 1969, and quickly became a hit, not only with its intended audience of pre-school children throughout the country, but also with parents, educators and television critics. Columbia reports the recording is rapidly becoming a learning tool for children used alone or in conjunction with the lauded tv series.

Jenkins Files Suit On 'Folsom Prison'

NEW YORK — Legal complaint has been filed by Gordon Jenkins, Inc., against Johnny Cash, Hi Lo Music and its agent Hill & Range for "willfully infringing" on copyrighted material from the Jenkins catalog.

According to the complaint filed with United States District Court, Southern District of New York in Manhattan, a registration of copyright application was filed by Jenkins for lyrics to "The Crescent City Blues" in 1953. The exclusive rights were subsequently secured on June 25, 1963.

Jenkins then claims that the defendants filed for registration of copyright for lyrics of "Folsom Prison Blues" on September 14, 1956.

As plaintiff, Jenkins states that the claim to "Folsom Prison Blues" lyrics as "original and theirs" by the defendants, and the "recordings . . . extensive advertising and publicity to sell & promote records featuring Johnny Cash singing his 'own' lyrics, which . . . were copied from the plaintiff's lyrics" constitute infringement on the copyright.

The claim further states that after notification of violation on April 21, 1969, the defendants "continued to claim credit for said lyrics, promoted themselves and earned monies from said lyrics."

Demands in the claim request enjoining further infringement and accounting and paying over "gains, profits and advantages derived" and "such damages as plaintiff has sustained in consequence of defendants infringements of said copyright or such damages as . . . appear proper within the provisions of the copyright statutes."

The claim was filed last Monday (July 6) by the firm of Roemer, Klein & Garbus of New York.

WDGY-Minneapolis Getting Younger By The Hour

"We get younger as the day gets older," says general manager Dale Weber in describing the policy of WDGY, a 50,000 kw. station serving the twin cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul, Minnesota. Working off what is basically a Top 40 format, WDGY shifts by small degrees throughout the day, moving from an adult-directed approach during the morning and early afternoon hours to strictly teen programming by evening time.

The changes are reflected not only in the type of music which is broadcast, but in the personalities of the deejays doing the platter spinning. So the morning jock is cummuter-oriented while the mid-day man is one with a knack for communicating with the housewives. Nighttime disk jockey Jimmy Reed, himself a young man, closely identifies with the teen audience.

WDGY-Minneapolis, Minnesota. 50,000 kw. Robert H. Storz, pres.; Dale Weber, general mgr.; Scott Burton, program dir.; Johnny Canton, music dir.

Format: Top 40: Playlist: 30 hit records, selected oldies, occasional album tracks.

On-Air-Personalities: Scott Burton, 6-9 a.m.; Johnny Canton, 9 to noon; George Young, noon to 3 p.m.; Gene Leader, 3-7 p.m.; Jimmy Reed, 7 to midnight; King Michael, midnight to 6 a.m.

On the public affairs front, the station has spearheaded a campaign to lower the Minnesota voting age to 18. This weekend the station is airing a telethon on this topic, with listeners urged to call in their opinions and direct questions to prominent members of the community who will be sitting on a WDGY panel.

The station has also been active in winning support for Minnesota's Aquatennial celebration. It has sponsored the sale of Skipper pens, donating profits to the community committee.

Though the station's basic strength is among 18-35 year old listeners, it has also done well with the 35-49 age market. "We take an approach to contemporary music which does not alienate the older adult audience," explains Weber. "Rather than confining ourselves, we have tried for a broader appeal."

The station has refrained from many of the traditional Top Forty devices, such as the use of giveaway contests and emphasis on breaking records. Promotions stress audience involvement rather than cash handouts. Currently WDGY is running a Summer Pleasure promo, requesting listeners to describe their plans for the summer and awarding prizes to those which are broadcast.

Listeners are also encouraged to request oldies. When the deck is aired, the person who requested received a copy as a prize.

NMC Finance Report Reflects General Economic Decline

OCEANSIDE, N.Y. — Sales and earnings for the nine months and third quarter ended April 30, 1970 were announced last week by the NMC Corporation (OTC), leading rack jobber and distributor of stereo tapes, records and accessories.

According to Jesse Selter, president, sales of $7,285,310 in the 1970 nine month period exceeded the prior year figure of $4,364,255 by 67%. Net income of $14,873 included an extraordinary gain of $40,878 resulting from the repurchase of NMC bonds and compared with net income of $226,114 in the nine months ended April 30, 1969.

Primary earnings per share of 2¢ in 1970 included 6¢ from the extraordinary item and compared with 40¢ in the 1969 nine month period. The average number of shares outstanding on a primary basis was 637,000 in 1970 versus 570,000 in 1969.

Sales for the third quarter ended April 30, 1970 of $2,005,085 exceeded sales of $1,058,752 a year ago by 90%. The loss from operations of $302,002 compared with a net loss of $1,736 in 1969. Primary loss per share of 47¢ in the 1970 quarter compared with a break even in the third quarter on 1969.

According to Mr. Selter, "During the three months ending April 30, 1970 operations were adversely affected by the general economic decline in the retail business, producing a reduction in anticipated sales of regular merchandise in connection with the company's newly developed rack jobbing operations as well as a decline in sales of surplus or promotional items, and a concomitant increase in returns of merchandise by customers exceeding management's expectations. At the same time, virtually all operational activity in the area of our St. Louis branch was stopped for the month of April because of a trucking strike in the area while the opening of our branch in Detroit, and the preparation for our move of our Gardena branch into a new 38,000 square foot facility caused a substantial increase in costs for April. To meet the general economic slow down, management is attempting to increase efficiency by streamlining operations. Despite present economic conditions, with our fully active branches in New York, Detroit, St. Louis and California, management is optimistic about the normalization of profitable operations for the next fiscal year."

Office Consolidation

NMC has consolidated its New York City offices, formerly at 235 West 46th Street, into its corporate headquarters at 3580 Oceanside Road, Oceanside, N.Y.

According to Jesse Selter, president, "The move will provide better coordination between our marketing group and home office staff while, at the same time, reducing corporate overhead."

BUT YOU DON'T HAVE TO START SMALL.

Every group that ever made it to the top had to have a first album sometime.
But handling the release of that first album can have its problems.
You can tread softly and hold your breath. That's the way it's usually done.

On the other hand, if you believe in the quality of your product, why not let the world know it? That's the way we've tried to play it with the debut album of The Cates Gang. We know we've got an extraordinary group. So we've backed them up with a deluxe package—complete with a perforated 12″ x 24″ open-out poster that leaves the album intact; we've bolstered the package with an extensive sales promotion campaign; the enthusiasm of our promotion has turned on the program directors. Air reaction has been fabulous. In fact, one cut, "We All Got To Help Each Other," is being released as a single, because 16 top stations asked us to. (We would have released it, even if only 8 had requested it.)

We've put our money where our mouth is. We're sure it's the start of something big.

Picks of the Week

BOBBY SHERMAN (Metromedia 194)
Julie, Do Ya Love Me (2:52) (Lucon/Sequel, BMI — Bahler)
With "Hello, Mr. Sun" now past its zenith, "Julie, Do Ya Love Me" now looms on the horizen as Bobby's newest smash. Not one for letting the grass grow under his feet, Sherman bounces along in super-catchy style while the big band belts out the backing in fine style. Sure chart burner. Flip: "Spend Some Time Lovin' Me" (2:49) (Sunbeam, BMI — Atkins, Miller)

TOMMY JAMES (Roulette 7084)
Ball And Chain (3:30) (Big Seven, BMI — James, King)
First time out for Tommy James without the Shondells finds the singer in a funky, funky groove pointing up the good and bad sides of love. Hard rhymtic workout by the band, which includes a booming bass line and an inspired guitar bridge, combine with gritty vocals from Tommy to forge a sure top forty position for this deck. Flip: "Candy Maker" (3:40) (Same credits).

THE DELLS (Cadet 5672)
Long Lonely Nights (2:27) (Arc — G&H, BMI — Uniman, Abbott, Andrews, Henderson)
Dells deepen their sound this time 'round for a first-class rereading of the classic "Long Lonely Nights as only they know how. Charles Stepney's imaginative arrangement builds nicely and the group harmony that is the Dells trademark is shown to fine advantage. This one will add fans to the act's already large following. Flip: No info.

MICHAEL PARKS (MGM K14154)
Sally (Was A Gentle Woman) (3:37) (UA Music, ASCAP — Wheeler, Rowland)
Michael Parks has forsaken the "Long Lonesome Highway" to search for Sally. Exceptional melody and arrangement, especially the evocative strings and country-spiced guitar, spotlight the gentle voice of Parks on this wistful ballad of the "gentle woman." Song's impact should be as strong as those early Glen Campbell-Jimmy Webb smasheroos like "Phoenix." There'll be no stopping Michael's "Sally." Flip: "Save A Little, Spend A Little" (2:22) (Leo Feist, ASCAP)

OTIS REDDING (Atco 6766)
Give Away None Of My Love (2:45) East/Memphis/Time/Redwal, BMI — Redding)
Otis Redding material has proved to be some of the most consistently commercial of its type and "Give Away None of My Love" is no exception. Deck is solid funky material from first note to last with Otis providing exciting vocals. Pick up on this one early. Flip: "Snatch A Little Piece" (2:09) (Same pubs)

MARMALADE (London 20059)
Rainbow (3:05) (Noma, BMI — Campbell — McAleese)
Marmalade's first hit may have stopped reflecting sales but their follow-up, "Rainbow," will shine on brightly for the British chartbusters. Deep brown bass line, Hollies-like harmonies, and some warm mouth harp work add up to a dynamite summer sales package. Hit song writing team of Campbell-McAleese ramble on with another instantly commercial side. There'll be a pot of gold at the end of this "Rainbow." Flip: "Ballad Of Cherry Flavor" (3:19) (Same credits)

FUNKADELIC (Westbound 167)
I Wanna Know If It's Good To You (3:00) (Bridgeport, BMI — Clinton, Nelson, Hazel)
Long noted as a powerful blues band, the Funkadelic has since established itself on the vocal plane with top forty as well as R&B audiences. Latest side is a blistering combination of Detroit instrumental and searing vocal work. Extremely potent teen side. Flip: Instrumental version (3:10).

LITTLE MILTON CAMPBELL (Checker 1231)
Somebody's Changin' My Sweet Baby's Mind (2:55) (Julio-Bryan, BMI — Jackson, Henderson, Despenza, Campbell)
Impressive new side from Little Milton brings the chanter's vocal power to the fore with excellent production to complement his personal impact. Side also features material that is bound to excite R&B play and sales showings that could prompt top forty spillover. Flip: "I'm Tired" (2:33) (Chrysalis/Almo, ASCAP — Youlden)

STATUS QUO (Janus 127)
Down The Dustpipe (2:05) (Valley, ?? — Groszmann)
Already climbing the British charts with this side, the Status Quo return to the American market with a track more reminiscent of Canned Heat than their own. Bright rhythmic blend of early blues and pop should sew up top forty and FM action. Flip: No info.

JACKIE DeSHANNON (Liberty 56187)
It's So Nice (2:32) (Pasa Alta, BMI — Russell, Hunt)
Shedding her pop veneer, Jackie DeShannon goes into the style of her "The Weight" performance to come up with this new offering. Funk and feeling are blended together on a slow pounding ballad side that should build top forty support. Flip: "Mediterranean Sky" (2:37) (Unart, BMI — DeShannon, Holiday, Myers)

THE SPINNERS (V.I.P. 25057)
It's A Shame (2:57) (Jobete, BMI — Wonder, Garrett, Wright)
Carrying the unmistakeable influence of Stevie Wonder's work, the Spinners turn out a splendid bit of dance balladry on their newest. Inviting melodic entertainment styling should score with both blues and top forty programmers. Flip: No info.

ARKADE (ABC-Dunhill 4247)
Sing Out The Love (In My Heart) (2:15) (Trousdale, BMI — Price, Walsh)

THE NEW PERSPECTIVE (Maxwell 807)
Stone Outta My Head (3:19) (Van McCoy, BMI — Cobb, McCoy)
Smooth as sweet cream female vocal combines with a driving big band backing to give the New Perspective a good shot for chart honors. Add to this heavy percussion and a mighty danceable beat and you have a sound most teens will find hard to ignore. Flip: "It Will Never Be The End" (3:48) (Van McCoy, BMI — Van Rensalier)

SALVATION (United Artists 50695)
Tomorrow Is The First Day Of The Rest Of My Life (2:55) (Chappell, ASCAP — Courtney, Link)
Following something of "Hair's" pattern, "Salvation" has come through after a year off-Broadway with the current Ronnie Dyson hit calling attention to the score. Second solid song to make a powerful bid is this new treatment of "Tomorrow" for top forty audiences. Flip: "Someday The Gray Will Come" (2:30) (Golden Egg/Unart, BMI — Gilmore, White)

BS&T Certified Gold

NEW YORK — Columbia's Blood, Sweat & Tears, as anticipated, have achieved their sixth Gold Record award for their latest album effort, "Blood, Sweat & Tears 3." This rapid "Gold" certification showed an excess of one million dollars in sales verified within one day of the LPs initial release.

In fact, Columbia distributors compiled sales of more than a million units to retailers in the first week of release.

With the certification of "Blood, Sweat & Tears 3," the group has earned Gold Record awards for every one of their albums released to date, and their three million-selling singles "You've Made Me So Very Happy," "Spinning Wheel" and "And When I Die."

National airplay spurring sales for the best-selling album has spotlighted "Hi-De-Ho," "Lucretia Mac Evil," "Somethin' Comin' On" and "Fire and Rain."

Certain B'way Theatres Too Sell Half-Price Tix

NEW YORK — College and high school students will be able to buy Broadway theatre tickets at half-price on a regular basis as of Monday, (13) according to Richard Barr, president of the League of New York Theatres.

Upon the presentation of a student I.D. card at participating Broadway box-offices, a student purchaser will be sold a maximum of two tickets for exactly half the regular price. A limited number of tickets will be made available under the program, and only to those productions which are doing less than capacity business.

The student discount tickets will be made available both on an advance-sale basis and on the day of performance, depending on availability. Discount tickets will also be available for preview performances.

"We are confident that this program will encourage and stimulate the increased attendance of young people at Broadway shows," said Barr "It will enliven and expand our audience. The kinds of play that have the hardest time surviving on Broadway today are very often the kinds of plays that appeal to young people, and they'll come to plays that have something to say to them, if they can afford them."

his great potential as a recording artist with his own identity. His past product is known throughout the world and I believe he has a future of practically unlimited scope."

Kirshner also pointed out that another important aspect of Dante's talent is his ability as a song-writer. Ten of the cuts in his album are self-composed. Jeff Barry and Andy Kim wrote additional material for the album, and they are credited with writing both sides of his single.

The single, which has just shipped, and the album, which ships this week, have been specially packaged, the single in a full-color sleeve, and the album in a package with four-color front & back and a full-color insert portrait of Dante suitable for framing.

Release of the product was preceded by three weeks of teaser ads in music trades, culminating in a full-page ad in all trades. The consumer advertising campaign commences with full-page ads in major teen magazines.

Sales promotion materials will include Ron Dante buttons, postcards for disk jockeys, a four-color streamer, rack strips, distributor kits and a special publicity kit for disk jockeys and music reviewers.

A national press-promotion tour will introduce Dante to the nation's important radio and newspaper commentators as well as to RCA's distributors and dealers.

Modern Jazz Quartet

RAINBOW GRILL, NYC — The Modern Jazz Quartet found itself in what even for this group was a slightly unfamiliar setting when they opened an engagement last week at the Rainbow. But although the MJQ is not a traditional supper club attraction, and despite the occasional misplacing of a fork or spoon during the set, the Quartet kept the audience intrigued via their musical expertise and the sheer dynamics of their instrumental interaction.

The MJQ opened with a few standards, "Willow Weep For Me," "It Ain't Necessarily So," before doing a couple of more contemporary items, Tim Hardin's "Misty Roses" and Lennon-McCartney's "Yesterday." On the last named song, pianist John Lewis set down the melody, while vibist Milt Jackson overlaid a particularly imaginative improvisational track.

Turning to some original material, the group offered an excerpt from Lewis' score for the film, "Kemek," which was premiered in its entirety during last year's Christmas concert at Lincoln Center. Also from the Lewis catalog were "The Jasmine Tree," "Visitor From Mars," and the even more astral "Visitor From Venus." These offered Connie Kay the opportunity to work with a variety of percussive instruments and the remarkable sounds he produced are probably still reverberating lightly somewhere in the room.

The MJQ has been playing together for close to two decades now. But whereas many groups would have settled into a comfortable rut, this incredible foursome has shunned the easy and obvious, opting instead for the adventurous. Both individually and collectively they have continued to strike out along new jazz routes and apparently they plan to continue walking point. As well they should.

The Kinks/Toe Fat

WHISKY A GO-GO, L.A. — Head Kink Ray Davies generously told an enthusiastic audience at a recent Whiskey A Go Go outing, "We're not a good group and we know it, but we enjoy ourselves . . ."

His statement was half right. The Kinks do enjoy themselves and get further into it when the people out there get turned on to their music and performance, as they did at the Whiskey. The Kinks are a good group, actually two different groups, in effect, with different approaches on records and in concert, putting out an incredible amount of energy in both capacities.

I've been a Kinks fan right from the beginning, when they unleashed "You Really Got Me" and "All Day and All of the Night" about five years ago, during the first wave of the British invasion. They epitomized raw rock and roll with those tunes and with the fire and appeal of lead singer Davies and his cohorts in personal appearances.

Strangely enough, they never achieved complete recognition, even as their music got more subtle and complex, from "Well Respected Gentleman" and "Sunny Afternoon" to the recent "Arthur," scored for a television drama and a monumental contribution to recorded rock.

The current Kinks include, besides Davies, John Dalton on bass, Dave Davies playing lead guitar and adding vocals, Mick Avory on drums and electric piano-organist John Kirksey. On wax, most notably with "Arthur," the band exhibits an always-changing inventiveness over a solid, energetic rock base, whether using full brass or a single delicate harpischord line.

On stage the Kinks harken back to their early days, still lively, explosive, appealing, even lovable, when, for instance, Ray Davies winks and points naughtily at the audience or when brother Dave shakes his shaggy locks and belts his raucous off-key vocals.

(A note: Ray Davies has to be one of the most exciting singers in pop music. His wobbly, almost drunken delivery and his beautifully timed movements put him up there beside the oft-lauded theatrics of Jagger, Morrison and Joplin.)

At their Whiskey gig, the Kinks concentrated on pure energy flow, using mostly old material and molding two guitars, bass, piano, drums and vocal harmonies into a pulsing electric machine. They did a haunting, strong "Waterloo Sunset;" "Brainwashed," from "Arthur," which equals Kinks in its unrelenting drive; the mystical "Big Sky," from the "Village Green Preservation Society" album and ended the set with a "Really Go Me-All Day" medley which almost blew them off the stage.

They also fell into a fifties rock jam and kicked it all out with Chuck Berry-Little Richard licks. Dave Davies' playing, while not jaw-dropping, was consistently together.

It might also be noted that drummer Avory holds his left hand stick in the time-honored manner, cradled in the crotch of his thumb and forefinger, rather than using it overhand like a club, an all too annoying mannerism of many rock drummers. And what could be heard of Kirksey's keyboard was pretty and powerful.

As a publicity representative said later, most of the audience was made up of old Kinks fans. "You're either a Kinks freak or you're not," she said. She's probably right.

I only caught part of Toe Fat's set. That new English group played before the Kinks minus their lead singer, who blew his voice in earlier sets. What was left was an electric blues instrumental trio, adequate but all too familiar.

Leon Thomas

VILLAGE VANGUARD, NYC — When Leon Thomas arrives on the stage, you get the feeling something good is about to take place. Maybe it's the clothes he wears, which are beautiful and multihued. But you think, no, it's the man's exuberance, which is evident in his shuffling gait and his expression. Then he gets to shaking a cowbell, blowing a panpipe and throat articulating and you forget about the whys as you experience the performance of an important new talent.

During his five day stint at the Vanguard, Leon was working with a smaller group than the one heard on his recently released Flying Dutchman album. The compactness of the unit was well suited to the Vanguard. Off the LP came "One" and "Echoes," two songs written by the artist, followed by "The Creator Has A Master Plan (Peace)," co-authored by Pharaoh Sanders. On this one Leon soon had the audience joining in; it spiraled upward to a joyful ending. The artist also offered an eloquent reading of Horace Silver's "Song For My Father."

Leon deals in a sound which reaches into the consciousness of his listeners. Using his voice as an instrument and weaving his percussive patterns, the artist calls up spirits of his ancestors and creates an atmosphere which is as mental and spiritual as it is musical. Not exactly your run of the mill jazzman, Leon Thomas.

Motown/Chisa Pact; Sign Masekela Group

DETROIT — Motown Record Corporation has announced the signing of Hugh Masekela and the Jazz Crusaders to Chisa label, which Motown will distribute.

Motown and Chisa finalized the distribution contract last September, and full-scale operation will now get underway with the label's acquisition of these artists.

Ed Wright, of Wright-Johnson Associates, Los Angeles, has been contracted to assist distribution in promotion and marketing two albums under Chisa for the next three months. Wright will travel throughout the country to cover all major markets on all levels of involvement.

Masakela, formed the Chisa label in 1967, together with long-time associate and Los Angeles entrepreneur Stu Levine. Masekela's first album under Motown agreement, "Reconstruction," is being shipped to distributors this week. The LP is a follow-up to Masekela's earlier million-seller, "Grazin' in the Grass."

The Jazz Crusaders—Wayne Henderson, Stix Hooper, Wilton Felder, and Joe Sample—gained recognition with their "Lighthouse" series. Their first Chisa recording, "Old Socks, New Shoes," will also be shipped this week.

Capitol Cops Award For Max Merchandiser

HOLLYWOOD — The Fibre Box Association has awarded its annual Silver Award to Capitol for its Peter Max bookcover/poster merchandiser "Back to Cool," which was distributed to some 3,500 accounts across the nation during the 1959-70 school year.

The FBA gave the award to the company that produced an "outstanding development in point-of-purchase displays that build store traffic."

The winning display was created by Fred Rice, national merchandising development manager, Capitol Records Distributing Corp., the distribution subsidiary of Capitol Records, Inc.

Levy Goes To Levy

NEW YORK — Mike Levy has resigned from A.T.I., the talent agency specializing in rock acts, to rejoin the New York office of John Levy Enterprises. Levy joins the personal management and music publishing office after booking rock acts for promotion and college concert dates for the past six months.

Previous to his association with A.T.I., Levy was in the concert department at Associated Booking Corporation for one year. Before joining Associated, he worked for John Levy Enterprises out of the New York office beginning in 1965 and also was road manager for Ramsey Lewis and the late Wes Montgomery.

NEW YORK — SHORT TAKES BY THE NUMBER, SHORT ACHES BY THE SCORE

Last week's column was all short takes. Because of the large number of them left over, though, we'll print another lot of them heavily interdispersed with some first-hand bits (including a Cannonball Adderley interview). Read on, read on.

Blood, Sweat & Tears was more than just the name of a band the other day in Bucharest, Rumania. It was also a pretty fair description of the proceedings as the Columbia group gave a performance which wound up in a virtual riot. Apparently, the Bucharest police aren't used to what has become the standard audience participation closer for rock concerts in the Western world. When enthusiastic fans attempted to storm the stage, the cops reacted by wading into them with flying clubs. When the smoke cleared, a number of young people had been injured and it was announced that the remainder of the band's State Department sponsored tour had been cancelled. BS&T had planned to do an additional concert in Ploesti.

Other news of the week is of the Newport Jazz Festival on July 10 to 12. Set to go on Saturday is Ike And Tina Turner and, in celebration of his birthday, Bill Cosby will present his group, Badfoot Brown and The Bunions Bradford Marching and Funeral Band. Also on tap for their predominantly blues performances are Roberta Flack, Albert King and Shuggie Otis. All are "first-timers" at the festival who will take their place among a full slate of top jazzmen.

About the Cosby band: Uni is going to release the group's first album this week on which the actor/comedian performs on a number of instruments and composes all the music. Produced by Gil Rodin, the set features Cos in a serious vein.

Still on a jazz note, Warner's Herbie Hancock is heading up a group of show business people to build a Harlem Jazz Center in that community. The pianist/composer wants to start the center to provide professionals and students of the Arts with the opportunities to research, create and present their work to the public.

Julian "Cannonball" Adderley just visited us to talk about his black music seminar program and his upcoming Capitol release. The LP will include the group playing with a symphony orchestra. Three major pieces will be presented: one by his producer, David Axelrod; another by Lalo Schifrin; and the Viennese composer Jawinul penned a work that takes 22 minutes of album time. The album gets into a lot of free-form stuff into which is worked all types of music — rock, R&B, ballads, old swing, and styles of Archie Shepp, Ornette Coleman, Don Ellis, etc. Cannonball comments on his change of direction on this LP in the following way: "Music has so many characteristics and the band can play anything very well.

HOLLYWOOD — THEY SHOO-IN HORSES, DON'T THEY?

Songsmiths maintain that their most gratifying experience is to come across kids in the street who are humming, whistling or singing their compositions. We agree. Back in the fifties, when we were adding words to music, we would constantly encounter saplings singing our songs and it never ceased to amaze and enchant us — even though they were our kids.

It was a dozen years ago when we wrote our one and only horse-race song. It began "Well, I bet my bottom dollar on a nag called Sarah Rose/In the fifth at Caliente/Fifty dollars on the nose/On our parimutual ticket she was 95 to 1/And I wondered why the odds were high/then I saw her run . . . 'They're off,' the grandstand shouted/As they started in to race/Sarah Rose took off like 'Lightning'/'Lightning' was in 14th place/As they headed for the backstretch/In a final burst of speed/Ol' Sarah Rose, by just a nose/Was a mile behind the lead : . . " It was titled "Monkey on a Donkey" and if you consider the first two of thirty-four verses as undeserving, we'll hum a few bars.

We showed them to a number of music biz people and, almost without exception, they took exception to one word in the song. "You're on the wrong track," they said, "there are no parimutuals at Caliente." We had no idea how knowledgeable our trade was — about horse racing.

Since, we have discovered that a great many industry execs and artists escape from the weekday record rat race to a weekend Hollypark horse race. And the list of horse racing owners in this biz is impressive and prodigious. It includes (and we're sure this is only a partial list) exec-producers Snuff Garrett, Ken Revercomb, Joe Saracino; D.J. Bob Hudson; music pubs and producers Sy Heller, Ray Harris, Bill Lowery; execs Jerry Moss, Russ Regan, Herb Alpert; pressing plant proprietor Nate DuRoff; record promoman Mike Borchetta; songsmith-conductor-producer Burt Bacharach; former label prexy (in the process, we hear, of forming his own new label) Alvin Bennett and vocalist Tommy Roe.

A couple of years back, at the NARM convention, Bacharach abashedly excused himself from a panel discussion, explaining that he had to leave a little early because he had his first horse racing at Del Mar. Since Burt has seldom done wrong with a song, half of NARM figured his nag was a sure thing. And many wandered out of the auditorium to contact their local bookies, laying a sawbuck or two on Bacharach's entry. From the flick and disk trades Bacharach gets Oscars and Grammys. But from his horses — mostly promises, promises.

He owns six at the moment, including one that recently ran in the San Juan Capistrano Handicap. "I'm planning to spend this summer at Del Mar," Burt recently told L.A. Times nightclub editor Bob Hilburn, "we've rented a house right on the beach . . . racing is the only thing that lets me forget music completely."

Snuff Garrett is one of very few in our trade who is actually ahead of the game with his stable. In the past few months Snuff has had more horses than records in the top three. His trainer, George Hartstone (former president of Hart Distributors) insists that Garrett is simply enjoying beginner's luck. "Hardly anybody ever makes money racing horses," says Hartstone. "That's why it's the sport of Kings." George also trains the Jerry Moss, Nate DuRoff, Al Bennett and Herb Alpert stables.

Mike Borchetta, involved in split ownership with Bill Lowery and Bob Hudson, contends that he is turning a neat profit on his weekend venture. "But that's only because I also board horses." Still Borchetta's colors have reached the winner's circles on numerous occasions — three times this year.

Everybody loves every kind of music — a comprehensive style of musical tastes." Then we spoke on his seminar work at colleges. He makes it clear that the textbook is one thing and his field work is another as far as jazz and all black music goes. Time was, even when he was in a black, Southern college himself, when jazz and other forms of black music were frowned upon by the faculty and he even cited that it was a matter for discipline if you were caught playing jazz in the rehearsal halls. That's a lot of lost heritage which he says exists in some colleges even today. His whole band, all college graduates, take part in the two day seminar which includes several lectures on the roots and history of jazz and black music, concerts and workshops. It is usually set up in conjunction with a concert by the group at the college that week, sometimes being set up by the Black Studies Program, a music or sociology or other department. In most cases the group does it free — Cannonball stated "There's no charge for the experience in black music." The concert generally pays it back. We talked about his thoughts on student unrest and things he observed during the heat of last semester. He claims he's non-violent and does not condone classroom burnings and the like because "It denies others of the right to study in that space." He talked about one incident at Berkeley where the rioters and administrators called a temporary truce in order to hold the annual two day jazz festival. For his seminar during the festival attended by 12,000 people, he drew 6000 of them in one day. This year his black music seminar program will be condensed into one four hour period. He's also trying to coordinate week-long workshops for credit, and a Southern black music festival which he would like to play with Clara Ward, Jerry Butler, Staple Singers, etc. Look for his new album and watch for him on campus and in concert hall — he knows what he's doing.

EAST COAST GIRL OF THE WEEK

For two years, Bonnie Belville has worked with Dave Glew and Sal Uterano of the Atlantic Album Sales Dept. Maybe you've heard her recently doing a Mott The Hoople, radio spot, or maybe you heard her a couple of years back at Palisades Park and other show spots 2nd soprano-ing with her singing group. She's also used that talent to land some session work. There's a whole story to the start and finish of that venture that is too long to get into now, but it does show off her go-getter spirit that served to land her jobs with CBS News and with several fashion shows as a model. On weekends she still uses the services of the Barbizon School of Modeling which she attended to get local fashion show work. Only recently did she begin taking guitar lessons but Bonnie claims, "Give me six months and I can truly boast of a little guitar."

Mountaindale was presented this week with an injunction by Sullivan County to foil plans for their summer activities, claiming a general lack of facilities to handle the crowds that are expected. So, the opening night Van Cliburn concert was cancelled until a later date, and the Mountaindale people are trying to iron things out in time for this weekend's rock fest. Set to appear is The Grateful Dead who will also be doing a set of concerts at The Fillmore this weekend, billed as "Dead At Midnight" — four nights of midnight concerts which will also feature a sub-group of Dead members performing under the title of The New Riders Of The Purple Sage.

Mentioned the new McKendree Spring album last week. Well, this week I was able to hear one of the three acetates in existence of that group's Decca LP slated for August. All but two of the songs were penned by the group but one of the outstanding cuts is their interpretation of James Taylor's "Fire And Rain." Generally a fine album, it features a more fulfilling sample of their style than was found on their debut album. The group gave a tape of the new deck to the underground radio station at Cornell University. Requests for airplay was so strong after initial broadcasts, that one song went on the Top 30 charts there overnight, despite announcements that the record was unavailable. The group appears at the Capitol Theatre very soon.

Was also able to sneak a listen to the new Jerry Jeff Walker album on Atco. Recorded down South, there are some very strong production numbers that break up the "single" image of the singer-composer. Some say he will have a hard time trying to follow "Mr. Bojangles," but I think there is a lot in this album that could secure his career as a singer/songwriter.

The Village Gate is onto a new rock format which will feature new groups throughout the week and weekends. Sunday nights will be set aside for experimentation in contemporary music forms, particularly jazz-rock fusion. That program kicks off on July 12 and 19 with groups Farmer Brown and The 7th Century. Call for reservations at GR 5-5120.

A new horn section is working in the Muscle Shoals Studios in Alabama. Dale Quillen, Mike Stough, Stacy Goss and Sonny Royal play trombone, trumpet, fluegelhorn and tenor sax respectively, and double on F horn, bass trombone, tuba, Bari sax, alto sax and clarinet. The Shoals Horns have also been doing work at Tupelo, Mississippi's Triangle Sound Studios and at Quinvy Studios.

This week's shows at the Schaefer Music Festival in the park are Ike & Tina Turner/Voices Of East Harlem on July 13, The Four Tops/Eddie Holman on the 15th, Stan Kenton/Four Freshmen/Chris Connor on the 17th, and Little Richard/ Wayne Cochran & The C.C. Riders on Saturday (18).

Les McCann and His Trio will play in the Garden of the Museum of Modern Art on the 16th. Muddy Waters is coming with his Blues Band on August 6th.

There is a series of free concerts set for Tompkins Square Park on four consecutive Wednesdays at 8:00 p.m. starting July 22 with two others on August 16 in the afternoon and evening. Various concerts will feature gospel, folk, rock and jazz with a lot of local talent. Bring blankets and chairs.

Poet/novelist/songwriter/singer Leonard Cohen will make his New York debut at the Forest Hills Music Festival on July 25. He'll be playing with his newly-formed band, The Army. He's now in Nashville recording his third Columbia album.

at that. Not an exorbitant figure when you consider that Fred Astaire, who has been known to cut records (he also backed a label in the 60's — remember Ava Records?) owned a horse that earned more than a quarter of a million dollars.

"Triplicate" was his name and he won the Gold Cup and the Golden Gate Handicap among others. "Racing is a lot of fun," says Astaire. "But an owner runs into a good many hazards and irritations at times. Some people can't understand why the horses they bet on should be beaten. They blame the jockey, the track, the horse — in fact everybody but themselves — and often take it out on the owner. One day I was leaving Hollywood Park after Triplicate had been beaten and, as I drove by in my car, a man walking along the road said in a loud voice to be sure I'd hear, 'There goes the son-of-a-bitch who owns Triplicate'."

Russ Regan owns a trotter and a pacer, currently racing the California Fair circuit. But they'll be at Hollywood Park in September. Regan says the horses are at least "earning their oats." Which is more than most equestrian shareholders should expect. Still we can't help but wonder — with all the execs involved in racing why our "Monkey on a Donkey" song wasn't ever cut. For anyone out there interested, we still have a few faded leadsheets. But no demo — we blew all the demo money on that Bacharach horse back at NARM convention.

BRIEFS — Neil Diamond's newest, "Glory Road" will be heard in Paramount's "WUSA." Flick stars Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward, Tony Perkins and Laurence Harvey. This is the first time that Diamond has sung his own comp in a motion picture . . . Jimmie Haskell, the omnipresent arranger-conductor, may now be labeled the west coast catalyst for the Muscle Shoals sound. Having recently completed the charts for Bobby Gentry's Capitol LP "Fancy," and her chart single "Apartment 21," in Muscle Shoals, he's just finished work on the string arrangements and conducting chores for the Rick Hall-produced Clarence Carter single set for Atlantic release. This was backed with an additional chart for Willie Hightower on Fame which Hall also produced. Haskell has recently cut Laura Nyro in N.Y. and B. B. King in L.A. as well as the Shoals dates . . . Glen Campbell returns to the International in Vegas this week with Eddy Arnold set to follow on July 27th. On August 10 Elvis returns! . . . Due to the success of the Johnny Otis Show at the Ash Grove (he closed in June), Johnny is taking the show on the road — he'll be at Shelly's Manne Hole in L.A. (July 14-19), Basin Street West in San Fran. (Aug. 14-16) and the entire afternoon of Sept. 19 at the Monterey Jazz Festival . . . Stevie Wonder has formally announced his engagement to wed songstress Syreeta Wright — no wedding date set at this time . . . Bobby Stevens and the Checkmates (whose version of "Sweet Caroline" is worth the fare) are being held over at the King's Castle, Lake Tahoe. Understand you'll be able to sample their treatment of the Neil Diamond classic on the Smothers' Bros. initial ABC show . . . Hollywood Bowl opened this past week, intro'ing its new sound system, designed by Chris Jaffe (responsible for the systems at Ravinia, Meadowbrook, Central Park and other famous outdoor music festivals. And a special acoustical enclosure for the Bowl Shell has been designed by L.A. architect Frank Gehry. Also new — Small World will be offering al fresco meals at the Patio Restaurant and box suppers for delivery to your seats. Space for additional 1000 cars will be available at the Universal City Parking lot with free and frequent shuttle rides . . . Paul Robeson's godson, John Hammond Jr., we hear, may soon be joining the Columbia label clan. We had hoped to catch John at the Ash Grove last Sunday nite but he cut his engagement short to do another in N.Y. He's one of our industry's undersung ethnic blues singers and he'll soon be a giant record act — another to watch — Kris Kristoferson, just closed at the Troubadour. Kris is the most inventive country styled composer-singer we've encountered since Roger Miller first warbled "Dang Me." His first LP is on Monument.

PACIFIC POP-OUTS — (Singles) Paper Mache (Dionne Warwick, Scepter) in S.F., I Wanna Take You Higher (Ike and Tina Turner, Liberty) in Oakland, Lights of Tucson (Jim Campbell, Laurie) in Seattle, Coming Apart (Poco Seco, Certron) in Portland and I Can Make It With You (Bread, Elektra) in L.A.

CHICAGO

Jethro Tull, who drew a record breaking crowd into the Aragon Ballroom just a couple of weeks ago, will be back in the room on July 15 for a special concert performance. As far as we know this is the first Wednesday night show the Aragon has had since American Tribal Productions took it over. Others on the bill will be Vanilla Fudge and White Lightning . . . Tony Stratton Smith, who heads up the Charisma label in London, is on a U.S. tour in conjunction with the upcoming release of some new Charisma product and the midwest-east p.a. tour of the Rare Bird, who are riding the Europena charts with current single "Sympathy". Smith is very enthusiastic about The Nice album, which Mercury will release in the States very shortly. Titled "The Five Bridges Suite", set is the group's last effort together as they have since gone their separate ways. Organist Keith Emerson has formed "'Elp"; vocalist-bassist Lee Jackson, the "Jackson Heights," and drummer Brian Davison "Every Which Way" . . . Liberty-UA's Alonzo King tells us the new Bobby Womack single "Don't Look Back" has just been released . . . European star Sven Jensen began a month's engagement in Mangam's Chateau (Lyons, Ill.) July 2. Jensen is represented by World Wide Artists Management . . . Brunswick single "Sly Slick & Wicked" by the Lost Generation, a very big r&b item in this area, is reportedly going pop . . . Jonah Jones and his quintet open in London House 7/15 for three weeks. Group just completed a very successful tour of the Far East . . . Latest addition to the Mill Run Theater's talent lineup for the summer series of weeklong concerts is Liberace who'll be appearing July 14-19 . . . Engelbert Humperdinck is due in August 14-15 for two shows at the Auditorium Theater . . . Eva Dolin is doing p.r. for Car Tapes, Inc., local-based manufacturer of stereo equipment and accessories . . . TV actor Peter Breck was a Chi visitor last week to appear on the Sig Sakowicz show and debut his new record . . . Mercury Records hosted a cocktail party for Gene Chandler (10) at the Burning Spear Club. Songster's current single "Groovy Situation" is doing extremely well in this area.

Can you identify our Mystery Man? Within the next two weeks a certain record industry individual will embark on a cross country bicycle trip. Though some have called his venture foolhardy, he has turned a deaf ear to their comments. He is undaunted. Having assembled the necessary items (tent, air mattress, maps, etc.) he stands tall, prepared to face the long and winding road to Los Angeles. Does the Easy Rider fate await him too? Or will he emerge as a modern day Lewis And Clark? And can you guess his identity? First correct answer received here at Cash Box will receive a special prize, donated by the Mystery Man himself, a rare recording by Dolly Holiday. More clues next week.

Pop Picks

COSMO'S FACTORY — Creedence Clearwater Revival — Fantasy 8402

Hit singles and LP's just keep comin' for Creedence. This latest package is a sure powerhouse of John Fogerty material like "Travelin' Band," "Up Around The Bend," "Who'll Stop The Rain," and "Runnin' Through The Jungle." Also on tap is an extended reading of the Motown multi-group hit "I Heard It Through The Grapevine" that showcases CCR's considerable instrumental prowess. Set is instant gold.

JAMES GANG RIDES AGAIN — James Gang — ABC S-711

And suddenly the James Gang is a group to make you sit up and take notice. It's great to see how a group can progress from LP to LP (this is their second). Side one is mostly some pleasant straight ahead rock cuts with a fine instrumental medley at the end. The quiet thoughtful "Ashes The Rain And I" is a proper culmination to the set. Excellently arranged strings combine with tasteful acoustic guitar work to evoke sad images of rainy days. Deck was imaginatively produced by Bill Szymcyk (he's responsible for B. B. King's renewed recording career) who is fast becoming one of our best "men behind the boards." This one is already taking off on the charts.

NUMBER 5 — Steve Miller Band — Capitol SKAO 436

Steve Miller is known for his consistently striking and original albums and his latest is no exception. Set has just been released and is already streaking up the charts. The LP is, overall, the finest from the group. "Good Morning" is a happy way to start. It's a cut that would make a fine single and, incidently, ends with a guitar round of "God Bless You Merry Gentlemen." "Going To The Country" features much heavy guitar work by Steve, whose solo turns into a beautiful duet with Charlie McCoy's harmonica. "Steve Miller's Midnight Tango" is the highlight of the set, featuring some great harpsichord work from guest Ben Sidran and super vocals from Steve. Powerhouse set so stock up.

LOVE COUNTRY STYLE — Ray Charles — ABC S-707

Should be a sizeable demand for Ray Charles' latest album, "Love-Country Style." Of course the famed singer and pianist has not become a country artist, but, as he's done before, he brings his talents to bear on some country songs and injects a country flavor into his singing and playing. Selections include "If You Were Mine," "Ring Of Fire," "Till I Can't Take It Anymore" and "Sweet Memories." Look for this one on the charts.

DINNER MUSIC — Rotary Connection — Cadet Concept LPS 328

This is the fifth album by Rotary Connection (including a "Christmas" LP that must be the best ever made) and they've never failed to come up with unusual and thought-provoking material. "Dinner Music" is no exception. There are fifteen tracks, some as short as five seconds (the very brief ones are strange sound effects.) The bulk of the LP, though, is good strong music. "Living Alone" and "Amuse," for example are exquisite ballads, "While May Our Amens Be True," is group social commentary, and "Lonely Summer" and "Love Me Now," have powerful singles potential. Rotary has always been experimental in the music they turn out. As a result, many people have tuned out quickly to their sound. Here's a chance to rectify that situation.

MY BABY LOVES LOVIN' — White Plains — Deram DES 18045

On the heels of their singles smash, White Plains is heard on a host of songs written by the team of Greenaway and Cook, who penned "My Baby Loves Lovin'." Among the more familiar items is "You've Got Your Troubles." The group also offers a moving reading of "Today I Killed A Man I Didn't Know," and "I've Got You On My Mind," which kicks off side one sounds like a natural singles follow up to their current charter. LP should do well.

ON A CLEAR DAY YOU CAN SEE FOREVER — Original Soundtrack — Columbia S 30086

Here's the original soundtrack album of the movie version of the successful Broadway musical, "On A Clear Day You Can See Forever." Flick stars Barbra Streisand and Yves Montand, and the soundtrack is bound to be a sizeable item. The title song, of course, has been heard all over the country in a hundred versions for ages. Save a spot on the charts for this one.

ERIC CLAPTON — Atco SD33-329

Guitarist extraordinaire Clapton makes his album solo debut an impressive one with a set featuring a veritable Rock Who's Who of accompanists. Clapton sets the pace with a strong performance on vocals as well as guitar, and is joined by such stalwarts as Leon Russell, Delaney & Bonnie, Rita Coolidge and Stephen Stills. For change of pace, there's a marvelous Clapton-composed number, "Easy Now," which features the artist on acoustic six string guitar. Among the harder driving items to note: "Bottle Of Red Wine" and "Bad Boy," both written by Clapton and Delaney Bramlett. Outstanding outing, certain to become a top charter.

CHARLEY PRIDE'S 10TH ALBUM — RCA Victor LSP 4367

Charley Pride is an artist who appeals to both country and pop listeners, though he's not as strong in the pop department as Johnny Cash and Glen Campbell. His new album includes his recent big country hit, "Is Anybody Goin' To San Antone," and should do well in the pop field. Keep an eye out for the package on the charts. It should show up there.

BILL COSBY PRESENTS BADFOOT BROWN AND BUNIONS BRADFORD FUNERAL & MARCHING BAND — Uni-73080

The Cos is back but with a totally different kind of album than we've come to expect from him. Set consists of two long instrumental tracks of music Cosby alias Badfoot Brown has composed and produced. Side one is "Martin's Funeral," written just after Cos learned of Dr. King's assassination. It's beautiful jazz with some late Miles Davis influences and some rock overtones. "Hybish, Shybish" is more heavily into the jazz thing, like "Bitches Brew." It's the first time the Cos has shown us the serious side of his interest in music (his singing was a pure goof), and it bodes well for the future. An interesting set that should do well.

UNITED WE STAND — Brotherhood Of Man — Deram DES 18046

Group which clicked big with "United We Stand" single comes to the fore with an LP featuring that number and ten others. The Brotherhood's sound is a powerful one and they know how to use it. Taking full advantage of their vocal force and abetted by some excellent band arrangements, they really tear into "Sing In The Sunshine," "Love Is A Good Foundation" and other songs in the "United" vein. Look for this deck to stir up considerable action.

CACTUS — Atco SD 33-340

This is the first album of a group consisting of two former Vanilla Fudgers plus Rusty Day, recently with the Amboy Dukes, and Jim McCarty who rode for a time with the Buddy Miles Express. From the hardest of hard rock cuts, such as "Parchman Farm," Cactus segues easily into the lyrical "My Lady From South Of Detroit" and some first rate blues pieces, among them "No Need To Worry," which like most of the material on the album was written by members of the group. Watch for this set to hit the chart.

Blue Thumb Readies 2nd 'Color Collage' LP

LOS ANGELES — Having introduced its "Stereo Color Collage" multi-hued record with Dave Mason's album, "Alone Together," Blue Thumb Records next "Color Collage" LP will be "Buddy And The Juniors." This album will be released in August.

"Buddy And The Juniors" is the first time teaming of Buddy Guy, Junior Wells and Junior Mance. The project was conceived by Philadelphia disk jockey Michael Cuscuna of WMMR-FM and financed by Blue Thumb.

The colors used in this package differ significantly from those used on the Mason LP which is now Blue Thumb's top selling and fastest moving album. Various grades of black and white are blended into the blues album, which features all accoustic instruments and no drums.

The repertoire performed by ranges from "Talkin' Bout Women Obviously" to "Riffin," "Buddy's Blues," "Hoochie Coochie Man," "Five Long Years," "Rock Me Mama" and "Ain't No Need."

Creedence Gold Album Heads Fantasy Release

OAKLAND — "Cosmo's Factory," the new LP by Creedence Clearwater Revival—fifth in the series of LPs by Creedence—is a Gold Album as of the moment of release. Advance orders on the LP, which was released July 8, totaled over $1 million.

The new Creedence LP contains seven original compositions by John Fogerty, lead singer and guitarist. Four of the songs in the LP have previously been out on singles: "Up Around the Bend," "Run Through the Jungle," "Travelin' Band" and "Who'll Stop the Rain." Three of the songs are new. Fogerty produced the album.

Included in the material on the LP is a Fogerty arrangement of "My Baby Left Me," a composition of veteran blues singer Arthur "Big Boy" Crudup, "Before You Accuse Me," one of Bo Diddley's hits, and "I Heard It Through The Grape Vine," standard.

Also on the Fantasy July release schedule are two other new LPs, one by Billie Joe Becoat, "Let's Talk for Awhile" and "Parish Hall."

Becoat's LP is his second for Fantasy (his first was released in 1969). It was produced by Jesse Osborne. Parish Hall is a new group making its first recording debut with the Fantasy LP.

CTI Signs Farrell

NEW YORK — Jazz artist Joe Farrell has been signed to an exclusive contract by CTI Records. He is now recording his first album for the label, set for an August release. Farrell won the 1970 Down Beat readers poll as top soprano sax player.

IT'S ALL HUNKY DORY — A recent party for Dory Previn was hosted by Robert L. Yorke, president of Mediarts Records and Alan Livingston, chairman of the board of the new label and president of the parent firm Mediarts. Bash spotlighted Dory's "On My Way To Where" album which marks her debut as a composer-lyricist-performer and is the first LP to be issued under the Mediarts banner.

Pop Picks

HELLO DARLIN' — Conway Twitty — Decca DL 75209

Another country artist crosses the border into pop territory. Actually, Conway Twitty's done it before, but not in a while, and it was a surprise to find his single, "Hello, Darlin'," on the Top 100. Now the album of the same name has hit the Top 100 Albums chart. Twitty is obviously an artist to be watched closely. His career may take some sudden turns.

BLACK TALK! — Charles Earland — Prestige 7758

Jazz organist Charles Earland has come out of nowhere onto the charts. Assisted by Virgil Jones, trumpet; Houston Person, tenor sax; Melvin Sparks, guitar; Idris Muhammed, drums; and Buddy Caldwell, conga, Earland has made an album that has a wider appeal than any jazz organ set we can remember. LP has five selections, including "Aquarius," "More Today Than Yesterday" (just released as a single) and the title tune. Watch this one closely for further action.

Pop Best Bets

GREAT EXPECTATIONS — Kiki Dee — Tamla TS303

Take one established British session singer, add an excellent record company that knows what it's about, sprinkle in arrangers and musicians of style and taste building on rock solid songs and you have some idea of what this premier LP from Kiki Dee is like. But not quite. Here's a girl with one of the finest new voices around who has been struggling for some time in England with the wrong material. Suddenly, as happened when Dusty Springfield moved to Atlantic, Kiki's voice is finally liberated. Best cuts include "I Can't Give Back The Love" and the moving "Jimmy."

THE CRUISIN' SERIES — Various Artists — Increase INCM 2001-2007

Increase Records, distributed by Chess, here offers "The Cruisin' Series," "A History Of Rock N' Roll Radio," on seven albums, available individually. The LP's cover the years 1956-1962, and a popular rock n' roll deejay is featured on each set introducing the hits of the year that the package covers. Should be fair sales in the cards for the series.

Jazz Picks

THE SIXTH SENSE — Lee Morgan — Blue Note BST 84335

Lee Morgan, who as a teenager was already playing to acclaim in Dizzy Gillespie's band, has continued to seek out fresh musical directions. The trumpet player adds another chapter to his story with an album which never lags in intensity of feeling and musical spirit. Though Morgan's presence is everywhere, the talents of his comrades in sound, four of whom are alumni of Art Blakey groups, contribute considerably to the LP's overall sound. Solid jazz entry.

A DAY IN COPENHAGEN — Dexter Gordon — Prestige 7763

Tenor sax man Dexter Gordon assembled a uniquely talented group of expatriate jazz musicians and they have come up with an album which is as refreshing as its title. Three Slide Hampton originals highlight a set which also includes the contemporary standard, "The Shadow Of Your Smile." Slide is heard on trombone and Kenny Drew offers some neat piano work. Gordon himself is in characteristically fine form on this worthwhile LP.

Final Plans Being Made For SESAC's C&W Awards Banquet

NEW YORK — SESAC, the music performing rights licensing organization, is completing final arrangements for its Sixth Annual Country Music Awards Banquet, to be held at the Woodmont Country Club in Nashville on Thursday evening, October 15th.

The event is held in conjunction with the week-long birthday celebration of WSM's "Grand Ole Opry" and the Country Music Deejay Festival. Last year's SESAC Awards Banquet was co-hosted by Charley Pride, RCA Victor recording star, and Dave Overton, WSM's program manager, with live music provided by Nashville's own Boyce Hawkins and his orchestra. The hosts and the entertainment for the 1970 awards presentations will be announced shortly.

The 1970 SESAC banquet will get underway with a reception at 7:30 P.M., followed by a festive gourmet dinner at 8:30 P.M. and the formal presentation of the SESAC awards. The affair will be attended by some 250 leaders in country music, including recording artists, writers, publishers and record company executives.

CashBox Country LP Reviews

ALL AMERICAN HUSBAND — Peggy Sue — Decca DL 75215

Could be a sizeable number of spins and sales in the cards for Peggy Sue via her latest album effort. On the LP, the lark offers her two most recent singles, "All American Husband" and "After The Preacher's Gone" (the last-named was a sizeable item) and a batch of other tunes, among them "Don't Come Home A Drinkin' " and "You Wouldn't Know Love." Could be a good charter.

KENTUCKY BLUE GRASS — Bill Monroe — Decca DL 75213

The father of blue grass music, Bill Monroe, displays his wares once again, and the results will please many. Singing in his down-to-earth style and picking his mandolin with legendary expertise, the artist offers "Cripple Creek," "The Long Black Veil," his own "I Want To Go With You" and "Kentucky Mandolin" and seven other numbers. Blue grass enthusiasts take note.

JUST FOR YOU — Jim Ed Brown — RCA Victor LSP 4366

Jim Ed Brown's fans should want to own a copy of his latest album effort, "Just For You." The singer puts all the songs across in style, and such numbers as "The City Cries At Night," "The Bubblegum Bandit" and "Sunday In The Country" bid fair to please his followers. A recent single, "Lift Ring, Pull Open," is included here.

SINGING ALL DAY AND DINNER ON THE GROUND — Jimmy Martin and the Sunny Mountain Boys — Decca DL 75226

Here's a real good bluegrass gospel album that lovers of this type of music should really go for. There's lots of good singin' and pickin' with Jimmy Martin's voice and guitar leading the proceedings, and as you listen to the set, you can easily feel the cheerful atmosphere conjured up by the title. Fine LP.

AS I SEE IT — Jack Moran — Athena 6005

Jack Moran, co-writer of Henson Cargill's big hit, "Skip-A-Rope," here displays his own vocal talents, which are praiseworthy. Moran offers a program consisting mostly of his own songs (including "Skip-A-Rope," of course). He also includes Bob Dylan's "The Times They Are A Changin' " and Paul Sumon's "Bridge Over Troubled Water." Nice set that could do well.

IN THE SAVIOURS HANDS — Robert White & The Candy Mt. Boys — Ranger 408

Robert White & the Candy Mt. Boys are a very talented group, and on this album they perform gospel music blue grass style with great joy and spirit. Blue grass and gospel are not the most popular kinds of country music around today, but they have a power that more commercial sounds cannot destroy. Good LP here.

'Hee-Haw Gets Computerized

NASHVILLE — Yongestreet Productions, Inc., producers of CBS-TV's hit corn-pone fun fest, "Hee-Haw," are innovating a creative first by intermingling the homey flavor of rural humor with the lightning quick genius of an ultra-modern computer.

Compass Computer Systems' big IBM 350/50, one of the two such computers known to be in Middle Tennessee, computerized the scores of "Hee-Haw" spots, ranging from five seconds to four minutes in length, during the show's taping in Nashville's WLAC-TV studios in June. A printout, or "tape segment master register" is then furnished the Yongestreet staff, enabling them to simplify the intricate task of later editing the reels of taped segments into 13 shows for the forthcoming season, each crammed full of split second blackouts, comedy and musical presentations.

Each spot on "Hee-Haw", even if it's only one word, has a written script. The computer is currently programmed with 27 categories for "Hee-Haw" spots.

The fact has been emphasized that computerized methods are not being utilized in order to do away with any of the production company's "people power." According to Sam :ovullo, co-producer of the show, "No other show is using this computerized method and we'd be glad to share the underlying philosophy in depth with interested parties".

Int'l Fest Planned On New Brunswick Beaches

NEW YORK — Four hundred acres of wild berry bushes and unspoiled beaches mark the site for the First Annual Alter-Nation Rock Festival, "Strawberry Fields," to take place in the Canadian Maritime Province of New Brunswick at Moncton, August 7, 8 and 9.

Chosen for its natural beauty and sparsely populated countryside, the location of this Canadian province is calculated to attract citizens from both Europe and the United States, for the first truly integrated rock union.

Scheduled to feature such top acts as Eric Burdon & War, Cactus, Leonard Cohen, Delaney & Bonnie, Fat, Grand Funk Railroad, Procol Harum, Melanie, Mountain, Sly & the Family Stone, Youngbloods and Led Zeppelin, the three-day musical meeting will take place each day from low to high tides. The bill will also include such Canadian talent as Manitoba, Crowbar, and Luke & the Apostles, and others.

Noted as the lobster capital of the world, this site is bordered by white beaches with salt and fresh-water spring rivers. Campers will have full access to clean salt waters and a bay whose tide goes out for one and one half miles each day.

Fresh water from natural wells will be pumped up for drinking purposes, eliminating the casualties of broken pipes and rusty water.

Food concession prices will be controlled in accordance with festival policy and fresh-caught lobster and fish from this primarily vegetarian state will be available in abundance. Free rice kitchens will be manned by Toronto's Penny Farthing.

Medical staff and hospital tents will be located at each camping area and at all ends of the site. The Clinic, Canada's equivalent of the Hog Farm, will patrol the site and provide special hospital tents and rest areas.

Adequate toilets and showers have been stationed throughout camping grounds, beaches and stage area.

Three-day festival tickets are available at $15, and may be purchased at all Ticketron outlets or by mail order to Strawberry Fields, Suite 700, 720 Fifth Avenue, New York, N.Y.

Compo And MCA Form Canadian Disk Co.

LACHINE, QUEBEC — MCA Records begins operations soon as a result of a cooperative effort by its creators: Compo, the largest Canadian firm, and MCA, the entertainment conglomerate with affiliations around the world. The record company plans to build a strong marketing and distribution network for its product using the experience of its new sales and promotion departments.

MCA Records has the most modern plant in Canada, situated in Cornwall, capable of producing 50,000 12" long play, 50,000 45 R.P.M. records a day. It uses the most modern equipment for producing 8-track cartridge tapes and cassettes, and gearing itself for Canada's future, it will provide custom pressing facilities of top quality.

Company-owned branches in Ontario and Quebec will be used for distribution, as will independent distributors for the west and the Maritimes. The company intends to provide saleable contemporary product and fast efficient service to the existing nationwide dealer and distributor organization.

R.A. Chislett, vice-president and general manager of the Compo Company Limited, with thirty years experience, will head an executive team consisting of S.D. (Red) Roberts, well known across Canada for many years in the record industry, who will be vice-president responsible for the marketing of all product.

George Offer, who has been sales manager of Apex Records Limited in Toronto since it's beginning in 1949 and responsible for the Ontario operation, now becomes vice-president and national sales manager.

Lee Armstrong, who has been instrumental in obtaining many record lines from the United States for distribution in Canada becomes vice-president of product development. One of his major responsibilities will be the building of a strong Canadian talent roster. In the past few months, Armstrong has provided opportunities for Canadian artists to be promoted and sold in the U.S.

In keeping with the new company's policy of having a combination of youth and experience in the field, Richard Bibby, a young man who has been a top salesman for the last five years becomes sales manager for the Ontario division.

Amaret Opens International Dept; Judy Hicks To Head Label's Wing

LOS ANGELES — Amaret Records is expanding its international emphasis with opening of an international department and the appointment of six additional foreign licenses for the label.

The five new licenses are: EMI (Turkey), Sonet Grammofon AB (Sweden), Arne Bendiksen A/S (Norway), Dansk Grammofonpladenforlag (Denmark) and Scandia Musiikki (Finland).

In addition, Kenny Myers, Amaret president, has also brought in veteran music executive Judy Hicks to manage the newly-formed international department. Miss Hicks will handle all foreign licensing services including publishing for the department.

Miss Hicks, who spent six years as head of the Paramount/Dot licensing services in addition to handling activities for Frank Music, initially will complete plans for expanded foreign activity for the label. Myers, who has spent two out of the last four months in Europe, said that the "growing foreign market and mutual interests" had prompted the label to open the division. Crow, Amaret's five-man rock band from Chicago, has been particularly successful with sales in Europe and plans are now underway for the group to tour the Continent before the end of the year.

Miss Hicks will also be involved in the publishing activities of Amaret's Daje Music (BMI) and AMAK (ASCAP) music companies, which have nearly doubled in size with the addition of material from several new writers including writer/singer Dave Antrell.

In announcing the new department, Myers said that Amaret was "extremely fortunate to get someone with the experience and know-how of Miss Hicks to take charge of it. With Judy taking a hand I think our international arm will soon become an extremely important part of this company."

Classicals OK For Percentage Content

TORONTO — With CFRB's "Starlight Concert" hosted by George Wilson leading the way in searching out suitable Canadian content records for classical programming, the arguement that there isn't sufficient material has been blown sky high. CFRB's "Starlight Concert" for Canada Dan (July 1st) presented a program of 100% Canadian content for the highly acclaimed two hour show. The CFRB library researched their subject well and came up with what was considered as one of the best attention getters of the year. Telephone calls and letters appeared to back this claim. Wilson opened his show with the Charles O'Neil penning of "The RCMP Regimental March" by the Howard Cable Concert Band on RCA. Other artists included on the show were: Maureen Forrester, Lois Marshall, Glenn Gould, Margaret Ann Ireland, Richard Verreau and Jon Vickers. Receiving the most listener reaction was "The Maple Leaf Forever" by the 300 voice Mormon Tabernacle Choir, on Columbia. The show concluded with Kenneth Campbell's penning of "River By Night," written about the Ottawa River and performed by the Howard Cable Concert Band, on RCA.

Polydor Records has released an impressive list of Canadian artists on labels distributed by them. These include: Richard Verreau, Jon Vickers, Maureen Forrester, Leopold Simoneau and Pierrette Alarie, Don Garrard, Boyd Neal with the Hart House Orchestra, on DGG (the latter to be released in September. Polydor also distributes a DGG album of "Chamber Pieces" by Sir Ernest MacMillan, famed Canadian classical writer and former conductor of the Toronto Symphony Orchestra.

The Music For Pleasure series of long-play records is one of the most popular of the low-priced lines available in this country. In just over a month the company's initial "Gold Edge" label has sold more than 121,000 copies of the album "Johnny Cash 1970." The television media budget of $100,000 was supported nationaly by striking point of sale material, and the company now reports holding a 25% share of the total LP market, as well as a 50% share of the budget label market.

Its been many years since we saw Brenda Lee down under, but she's back and better than ever at Sydney's Hotel Chevron. Brenda received some fine compliments from the press, and although absent from the hit scene for some time, Astor Records here have issued a single to co-incide with her visit. The disc couples "I Think I Love You Again" with "Hello Love." Astor also out with singles by Kenny Ball and his Jazzmen and the Strawberry Alarm Clock.

Two Australian subsidiaries of the American Columbia Broadcasting Group have reported contrasting profits for the year ended October 31. The Australian Record Company Limited lifted profit from $384,398 to $402,465. The Australian Record Club Pty, Ltd. turned in a profit of $149,478 compared with $178,084 the previous year. The Australian Record Company issue CBS, Reprise, Kapp and Epic among others.

Local fans in five major cities will get the chance to see Bill Cosby here for a nation-wide tour July 29 to August 6. The entertainer who had two significant singles here in "Little Old Man" and "Hooray For The Salvation Army Band" will appear along with renowned folk and gospel singer Odetta.

It Had To Happen Department: One of the new independent record company labels Havoc Records have released a single by a comparatively new group on the scene here, called simply Ash. The group stand out from all others at the moment because of their policy of appearing completely nude for personal appearances. Several radio stations are reportedly upset about the sensual theme of the songs contained on their new release. EMI, known as the Greatest Recording Organisation In The World have also made an unprecedented move in promoting local group the Zoot via advertising featuring the four-piece combo completely in the buff. Title of the quartet's new single is called "Hey, Pinkie."

The musical hit "Promises Promises" available here for some time in lp form comes to the Australian stage next month with Broadway leading man Orson Bean in the leading role. As is always the case with hit musicals, the advent of the musical here is expected to carry across into an increase in sales of the original cast album.

On the subject of original casters and soundtrack albums, the "Paint Your Wagon" movie is reportedly breaking records all across the country and the sales of the album issued here on the Paramount label are strong as a result. The single "Wanderin' Star" by Lee Marvin is also hitting the charts in a big way.

Australian Record Company have announced the appointment of Des Steen as sales manager of their Sydney-based record division; he was formerly promotions manager, a post now held by Ann McCarthy.

EMI (Australia) report their biggest selling single by a local group in a long time is "Turn Up Your Radio" by the Master's Apprentices. The group are recording in England at the moment along with another top EMI group the Axiom.

While in Australia recently, Shirley Bassey kept up to date with news of the international disc scene through her copies of Cash Box. We apologize for incorrectly crediting EMI as Miss Bassey's label; she is now with United Artists label, handled here by Festival Records. The label's chief Allan Hely reports continuing sales on the thrush's new single "Sea And Sand."

Seldom does a locally-recorded album get such an enthusiastic coverage in the national press. Achieving this much deserved praise is Adelaide-born folk singer-composer Doug Ashdown via a two disc set on the Astor company's Sweet Peach label. Ashdown who wrote all twenty five tracks with fellow composer Jimmy Stewart, has the distinction of having the entire package issued in America through MCA. Because Sweet Peach is not affiliated with the ARMA (Aust. Record Manufacturer Association) and the present dispute over royalty payments, the LP is okay for air-play here.

Nice to see Tommy Leonetti's new album on RCA doing so well. As well as performing the dozen tracks on the LP, Tommy also produced the entire package. He also wrote four of the songs, including one called "No" in collaboration with Rod McKuen; and another "One More Time" with John Gary. Tommy's sense of timing as far as the hit sounds are concerned is evident with his inclusion of "Raindrops Are Falling On My Head," "He Ain't Heavy, He's My Brother," and "Bridge Over Troubled Waters." Album is titled "Tommy Leonetti Today."

Fable Records, the most successful independent label to rise out of the current record royalties dispute, has announced details of the release of their first overseas master, by newcomer Day Costello. The disc couples a John Lennon-Paul McCartney composition "The Long And Winding Road," with a song called "Free," written by Australian Allan Crawford who also produced the session. The master was negotiated for Australian release by Fables English representative David McKay.

The July 4 issue of Cash Box carried an item in the Canada column regarding the "Uncle Pen" single by Crowbar on London being produced by Ritchie Yorke. We have been advised Yorke had nothing to do with this production other than to introduce the single to London A&R people.

Compo's vice president product development and sales marketing division, Lee Armstrong, has just returned from a sweep through Western Canada. While in Edmonton he learned of the successful appearance of Mom & Dads at a CFCN sponsored show emceed by Curly Gurlock. At $5. per couple, the group, who cashed in on their single, "Ranger's Waltz," pulled over 3000 people for their two days, returning a good profit for the promoters. This group of "oldie" old timers first crashed the scene through the promotional activity of Calgary's Arnold Palmer, who operates a one stop under title of his name. So successful was his promotion with juke operatiors and retailers, he sold over 10,000 singles in a short space of time making the group one of the hottest and certainly most unique on the market. In the can and ready for release is their new single "The Blue Canadian Rockies." Their album and singles are releases on the APEX label.

Marty McGuinness has shown good form in getting the Ampex version of "Big Yellow Taxi" by The Neighborhood off the ground. McGuinness, national promo for Ampex, has also found a ready market for "Trucker's Cafe." Play and sales in the Toronto area indicate top potential for this single by Great Speckled Bird (Sylvia Frickert). Jesse Winchester, now residing in Montreal, has shown good sales returns on his new Ampex album under title of his name.

Tom Williams, promotion for Warner Bros. reports a rush release single of "Your Own Back Yard" by Dion. The deck has to do with the anti-addiction drive currently underway in the U.S. Lulu's appearance on the Canadian produced Ray Stevens Summer Show, has added to her power as a recording artist. Her latest lid "After The Feeling" should show good returns. Gordon Lightfoot's new Reprise single "Me and Bobby McGee" has made giant strides up the Canadian charts, bringing even more sales attention to his album "Sit Down Young Stranee." The latter is now close to receiving Canadian Gold. The Canadian office of Warner Bros. has been receiving a steady flow of audition tapes from new and established young Canadian performers. These tapes are gone over by the label's selection committee and a release date of several will be announced at a later date. "Superman" by the Ides Of March looks like the next big one for the label. Current chart topper is "Ride Captain Ride" by the Blues Image on Atco. Joni Mitchell's "Big Yellow Taxi" has become a national breakout.

The Chum production (Much Productions) of "Doctor Tom" has become one of the big Canadian items in Toronto, on Chum and in Montreal. The Gamma single by Freedom has been released in the U.S. on the Scepter label using Freedom Of Choice as the group name. The single was cut at RCA's Montreal studios. Brian Chater, who heads up the production company and pubbery, (Summerlea/Winterlea) reports the signing of April Wine, a new group from Halifax. A single is expected for release sometime in September.

Sebastian, currently making chart gains with his Apex release "Back In Love Again," spent some time in RCA's Toronto studios, laying down a few cuts for his new album. Sebastian also spent some time in the free area of the recent Festival in Toronto, but only as an observer. He was recognized however, and forced to give a couple of impromptu concerts.

The Mashmakhan single "As The Years Go By" on Columbia in Canada, has been released to favourable reviews on Epic in the U. S. The single is very big in Montreal, where the group is based, and is catching on in Toronto and Winnipeg.

On June 24, 1970, a new Syndicate of Musical Publishers was created in Paris, under the name of ASDEP: Syndicate of Publishers for Musical Publications. This Syndicate is composed of Musical Publishers who did not belong to the "Chambre Syndicate des Editeurs de Musique Legere" (Syndicate of Publishers of Light Music). ASDEP is composed in particular of all Publishers who have an affiliation with a record company. The commity has been elected as follows: president: Philippe Boutet (April Music, France), vice-president: Jean Pre (Tutti), treasurer: Jean Pierard (Allo Music) Also Mr. Nicolas Tritz (Barclay), Mr. Jacques Barouth (Vogue Publishing), Mrs. Lazare (Pathe-Marconi), Mr. Denis Bourgeois (Bagatelle), Mr. Luciens Ades (Ades Publishing), Mr. Francis Dreyfus (Labrador).

Polydor's 'Buck' Promo Catches Fire

TORONTO — Polydor records' promotion of "Keep On Smiling" by James Lloyd has caught the eye and ear of several radio stations across Canada. Brainchild of the label's promotion and publicity director, Allan Katz, the promotion has also resulted in some of the radio stations taking him to task for offering a buck with the disc "just to audition it." The number of dissenters however, were outnumbered by those who thought the promotion was a great idea. Katz has received letters from every Province in the country advising him of the fact the buck wasn't needed — they're playing the record anyway. Even some of those stations who criticized Katz advised him they were playing the record in spite of his "payola" practices. In any event, Katz won. All he was trying to do was bring attention to the disc. Other record companies in the industry were also complimentary to Polydor for coming up with this unique idea for the promotion of a new artist.

The Lloyd deck has been given the nod by some U.S. prophets and is released in the U.S. on the Colossus label. This is an original Ariola Germany recording.

CashBox Spain

The "Caeltic World Song Festival" has been held at Orense, a small capital town in Galicia, the northwestern corner of Spain. There was a golden "Rueda de Afilar" and 125,000 Pesetas for the first song; 75,000 and 25,000 Pts. respectively as well as a silver "Rueda de Afilar" for the songs placed second and third.

Twenty songs competed, most of them rather bad, and ten were classified on the first night for the final, held on the following day. "Caeltic" participating countries were Spain, Portugal, England, Ireland and France. Many young and quite a lot of not so young people filled the Sports Hall both nights. Most of the elders, at least, did not mind a dime about pop music and were there obviously just to see and be seen. On the other hand, the percentage of pop music to mind about was very limited indeed. Quite deservedly the winning song was "Stop, Look and Listen", the English entry, a ballad-type tune which sounded very much like all the Tom Jones-Engelbert Humperdinck-John Rowles' ones but contrived to sound somewhat different. Ray Davies had penned it and it was performed by Danny Street. This same team had another song pre-selected but it was rather poor and was not classified. The other English entries and the Irish participant were also rejected on the first night. "Si volviera a nacer," penned by Cesar Nuno de la Rosa and sung by "Los Magos de Oz" (RCA) got the second prize, and "Cantiga das fontes" composed by Fernando Vasquez Quiroga and performed by Nuevas Amistades (Guitarra) was classified third. Many people thought that "Manos que se alzan," sung by the group Continuados (Belter) had deserved one of the prizes, but in any case the jurors verdict was quite fair and, at least, in what regards the first prize, unanimous.

The performers were rather unknown, the only international exception being Jean-Jacques, French entry for the 1969 Eurovision Song Contest.

The Jury was presided by Mr. Rego, a local town-hall alderman, and his colleague Vidal Iglesias acted as secretary. Another local juror was the municipal band leader. Other part of the jury included music journalists: Mariano Mendez-Vigo, from the Madrid paper ABC and the Spanish Radio National network; Jose Palau, representing Madrid evening paper "Pueblo;" Rafael Revert for "El Musical;" Alfonso de la Pena for Spanish TV; Miss Maria Jesus Caballero for Radio Bilbao, and this Cash Box correspondent. Antonio Mataix was the Festival organizer and Miguel de Los Santos, assisted by Isabel Bauza, presented it to a quite unmusical though over-enthusiastic public.

COIN MACHINE NEWS

La. Senate Kills Bill Adverse to Operators

BATON ROUGE — A last ditch effort by anti-coin machine industry forces to gain passage of a bill that would place a "gambling" onus on amusement machines was killed in a state senate committee here last Wednesday, the final day of the Louisiana legislative session.

Senate Bill 206, introduced by Sen. Jesse M. Knowles, was brought to the senate floor last Monday, five calendar days after the defeat by the House Ways and Means Committee of Senate Bill 559, which would have outlawed bingos and made all amusement machines susceptible to confiscation and destruction if used for "gambling" purposes. Bill 206, similar to 559, was sent into a senate committee by a 19-18 floor vote and was subsequently killed.

To prevent future proposals for anti-coin machine industry legislation, Tom Hughes, president of S & H Dist. of Shreveport and Bob Rooney of State Novelty, Baton Rouge, have planned a meeting of all Louisiana operators to establish a statewide association. The meeting will be held July 14 at the Holiday Inn in Bossier City where all Louisiana operators are strongly urged to attend.

Minnesota Ops Meet

CHICAGO — The Music Operators of Minnesota (MOM) held a general membership meeting on Sunday, June 28, at the Ambassador Hotel in Minneapolis. Attendance was estimated at 55, which is the largest turnout the association has enjoyed since its official inception in February, 1968.

Association president Clayton Norberg attributed the turnout, to operator's concern over current tax problems, especially the 3% "piggy back" tax (in effect in Minneapolis and other cities) which, added to the 3% sales tax, would burden operators to the tune of 6%.

William Brooks, an attorney and lobbyist familiar with the coin machine industry through is representation of the state vending association, has been hired by MOM to represent the association. He was introduced to the membership at the June 28 meeting.

The daylong session was capped by a heated seminar and debate on the subject of 2 for 25¢ play. The next scheduled meeting will be this fall when a new slate of officers will be elected.

MOM's current officers are Clayton Norberg, president; Loren Beaudoin, vice president; Eugene Clennon, secretary and Norman Pink, treasurer.

Ussery Plans 25¢ Vend

DALLAS — Ussery Industries, recently announced its market testing of a 25-cent candy vend.

UII, which wholesales nationally known confections, also manufactures vending machines for the use of its distributors. The company presently has about 1,100 distributors throughout the United States.

The announcement was made to some 100 Ussery area supervisors gathered here for a management seminar. The seminar was called to complete plans for UII's summer expansion. The company aims for 1,700 distributors by Labor Day.

"We have set up machines vending the top ten candy sellers in 25-cent packages at select locations in the southwest," said board chairman Cecil Ussery. "Announcement of the results will come at our August 29 convention in Dallas."

EDITORIAL: Beyond the Wall

Last week in Louisiana, the coin machine industry managed to pull its neck out of a political guillotine that had threatened to spill the lifeblood of the Delta State trade (see news story). The stated objectives of the proposed adverse legislation were familiar—to combat alleged organized crime in the state and to halt gambling allegedly encouraged by the presence of amusement machines.

The industry's reaction was also familiar. An appropriately indignant response was directed at legislators—but not until the trade's back was pinned to the proverbial wall. Plans are currently underway to form a statewide operators' association that would prevent future character assaults directed at the coin machine business.

The response of the coin machine industry to such assaults is like the arrival of the hero in the old cowboy movies who rescues the damsel in distress tied to the railroad tracks—but barely in time after considerable doubt that the rescue would ever be made.

But wouldn't it be nice if industry activism against adverse legislation could be conducted as a fluid process, pursued on a day-to-day basis instead of as a series of last-ditch stands? But operators have found themselves to the wall on so many occasions that they think the wall is one of their prime locations.

This propensity of operators for assuming the defensive results from their failure to appreciate the political balance of nature that prevails on state government levels.

Among the objectives of all state governments are the raising of revenues and the bolstering of an image of clean, upstanding government, certainly both laudable and necessary goals.

In order to gain revenues, obviously someone's pockets must be lightened. In order to create an image of clean, honest government, state governments often publicize anti-crime campaigns. When attempts are made to root out malignant sources of crime, state governments properly protect their citizenry. But when they seek scapegoats, as in Louisiana, they insult the intelligence of those citizens and the reputation of their targets.

In the animal world the balance of nature (when not destroyed by humans) is maintained because each animal can rely on his own form of natural defense. In the political realm, defenses take the form of professional lobbyists, viable industry associations and aggressive public relations campaigns directed at the mass media.

Just as a defenseless animal cannot survive in the animal world, an industry vulnerable to the activities of the political world cannot survive without an arsenal of defenses that may be effectively implemented within the political system.

Hopefully, the state association planned in Louisiana will become an effective reality that will help operators take the offensive and remove their backs from the wall of oppressive taxation and unsavory reputation. This will require foresight, intelligence, and initiative—the latter desperately needed in the coin machine industry throughout the nation.

The aggressive emergence from this wall by operators would impress upon state governments that excessive taxes can cripple the structure of the trade and most important of all, that just because a music or amusement machine is coin-operated, it isn't a washing machine that will wash other people's dirty laundry.

ZOA Unity is Restored As Three Groups Rejoin

HAMBURG — One German regional operators' association that had withdrawn from the "ZOA", the German operators' central association, and two others that had given notices of withdrawal, recently re-entered "ZOA" or withdrew their notices.

The Operators' Assn. of North Rhine-Westphalia withdrew from the "ZOA" on January 31, 1970 and the associations of Bremen and Baden-Wurttemberg gave notices of withdrawal to become effective July 31.

In order to help restore the unity of the 11 regional organizations, which comprise about 3,500 members, the entire "ZOA" board resigned at the central organization's meeting held in Frankfurt June 25 and 26.

The new "ZOA" board members are Paul Damm of Augsburg, president; Heinz Gohlich, Kiel, vice-president and Willy Muller, Frankfurt, treasurer.

At the "ZOA" meeting it was also officially confirmed that there will be no Coin Machine Exhibition in Berlin this year nor an "Automatic Day", but that both events are planned for the fall of 1971.

Capitol Bows 2 Pieces

LOVE TESTER

NEW YORK — Ralph Hotkins, president of the Capitol 16 Corp. and co-head of the Mike Munves Corp., recently announced Capitol's production of its "Drive-in Movie" and "Love Tester" machines for the 1970 arcade season.

The "Love Tester", designed to look like an antique, contains a series of light bulbs that reveal the player's amorous skills that may include such ratings as "frigid and uncontrollable." Capitol recommends nickel or dime play.

"Drive-in Movie," a kiddie piece, shows full color cartoons on an 8 mm projector while sound is provided by a sound tape recorder that plays children's tunes. The machine is 21 inches wide, 47 inches long and 52 inches high. One minute and 10 seconds of film are shown for a dime.

NAMA Pledges Compliance With Oven Rules

Terming the member firms of NAMA as the most important factor in the use of microwave ovens for food service, Dick Schreiber, NAMA president, said he made the statement in response to proposed performance standards published by HEW under the Radiation Control for Health and Safety Act.

Schreiber said that vending and food service management companies recognize their responsibility to the consumer and that the association began an education program in oven maintenance in early 1969. He added that while the association did not possess medical competence to judge the proposed emission standards, it was not aware of any documented evidence of radiation injury from the use of microwave ovens.

Proposed federal standards would reduce the allowable emission from 10 milliwatts per square centimeter to five milliwatts for ovens produced after July, 1971.

Rabbits exposed to direct microwave emission of eighty milliwatts and above for prolonged periods of time in a test suffered burns and eye damage. There has also been speculation that microwave oven emissions could cause sterility and interfere with the operation of pacers implanted in heart patients. But thus far, HEW agrees there is no documented evidence that microwave ovens have ever injured humans.

In a letter to members, Schreiber stated that both the existing and proposed standards were set "arbitrarily" and without any basis of scientific research.

"NAMA respectfully suggests that, in line with the authority granted by the Radiation Control Act of 1963, thoroughgoing medical research be undertaken by your agency immediately to determine whether, indeed, a hazard exists and what standards should be established in the light of that research to assure the growing number of commercial and domestic users that microwave ovens are safe," Schreiber said in his official statement to HEW.

He urged the Bureau of Radiological Health of HEW to invite the association to all appropriate industry meetings and "that close contact be maintained between us on the subject of microwave ovens."

He said vending and food service management firms which are members of the association operate more than 40,000 of the estimated 100,000 microwave ovens now in use.

Cash Box: A Trade Magazine That Serves Its Industry

Partnership Acquires Mike Munves Corp.; Seeks Additional Arcade Equipment Lines

NEW YORK — The Mike Munves Corp. has been purchased by a partnership consisting of Ralph Hotkins (Pres. of Capitol 16 Company, Inc.) and Joe Goldsmith (Pres. of Rockaway Playland Arcade, Inc.). The deal, according to Munves Corp. vice president Joe Munves, was closed June 22nd. Terms of the purchase were not disclosed.

An announcement of the proposed merger of the Munves Corp. into International Mutscope Corp. carried in this magazine last fall was canceled out by mutual consent of those two parties early this year, at which time Hotkins and Goldsmith began their own negotiations with Mike and Joe Munves, resulting finally in the June 22nd purchase.

Both Hotkins and Munves announced that business will continue as usual with no change in its day to day sales and service activities planned. Joe Munves said he will stay on in his sales position, but with management taken over by the new owners, will now devote more time to the development of amusement and arcade machines for sale to other factories or for in-house production. Mike Munves is now in semi-retirement from the firm, but will be on hand at the shop periodically for consultation.

Hotkins is presently running the Munves Corp. at their Tenth Ave. and 42nd St. headquarters but advised that his Capitol 16 Co. will continue to function from 658 Tenth for the present. Goldsmith will join the active management after the arcade season has ended this fall.

Hotkins advised that his own plans for the Munves Corp. will call for "an aggressive drive to add new lines of amusement equipment to our roster. We will continue offering the amusement operating industry the finest in new and reconditioned equipment, and improve on service and delivery where possible. This firm has the finest reputation in the industry, throughout the world, and we will do our utmost to keep Munves' regular customers happy, while welcoming all new customers."

Fire Hits N.Y. Arcade

NEW YORK — The Times Square Playland amusement arcade at 1483 Broadway, between W. 42nd and 43rd Sts., was severely damaged by a four-alarm fire Sunday night, July 5, started by former mental patient Lawrence Solan who was charged with first degree arson.

Solan, 24, who had been employed at Playland for three days as a guard, said he started the fire because he wanted to "get even" with a fellow employee who had been insulting him.

Police said that after questioning at the West 35th St. precinct, Solan said he piled up debris in the basement of the building, ignited the pile with his cigarette lighter, and then went upstairs to pull the fire alarm.

Early estimates of damage were placed at more than $100,000 by Max Shaffer, president of the 1485 Broadway Corp., which owns Playland, Hubert's Museum at 228 W. 42nd St., and Radio Amusement at 246 W. 42nd St.

Shaffer said he will try to reopen Playland as soon as possible, but that the inner structure of the damaged building must first be examined to assure its safety for further use.

Shaffer added, "Playland has been one of our best stores and we've been doing a really good business here. But this is one of those things that just happen and there's not much you can do about it."

Also damaged were the Chinese Republic restaurant, directly above Playland in the six-story building, the Strand Hotel around the corner on W. 43rd St. and a store adjoining the arcade.

Solan was sent to Bellevue Hospital for observation. He had been arrested six times previously and was released last year from Central Islip State Hospital.

Miamco Displays 'Cameron' Jukebox at Dallas Presentation

DALLAS — Miamco, a division of the Vendo Co., was host here for a presentation of the "Cameron" jukebox in mid-June at the Marriott Motor Hotel. According to Miamco, holder of exclusive distribution rights to the "Cameron," 150 persons attended, including operators and location owners the latter who do not have jukeboxes in their locations. Said owners, impressed by the flexibility of the "Cameron," as it concerned their respective locations, were to be paired with one of the area's operators who would perform the installation and service and commission the location on the gross.

The "Cameron", easily disassembled into playing, speaker and selector components, is intended especially for locations that consider jukeboxes an intrusion of the location's atmosphere.

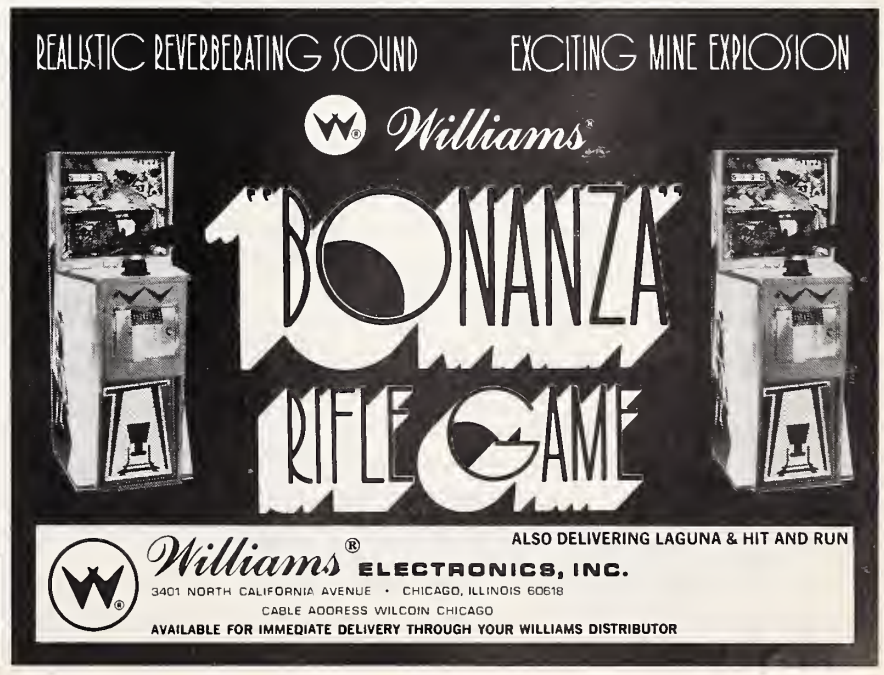
"The 'Cameron' is designed to approach the business of music in an entirely new and different way," said J.L. Burlington, vice president of sales and marketing for Vendo. "We place this system in locations where the whole concept of a conventional jukebox would be unacceptable."

Major components of the system are made and assembled in Great Britain. O.B. Mackie, Great Britain's director of trade for the southwestern United States was honorary co-host for the presentation.

For restaurants that do not wish to display even a selector mechanism, a music menu has been developed that enables a customer to order music in the same manner as food. A waiter selects the desired records at the regular charge or as a service.

Ordinarily, the "Cameron" selector mechanism, about a foot in depth, is mounted on a wall in the location. The playing mechanism, the largest of the three components, can be placed almost anywhere within a reasonable distance of the selector and the speakers can be mounted on a wall. The "Cameron" also includes an option which allows the customer to choose three pre-selected records for a quarter.

Miamco and its local distributors have placed the "Cameron" on location in Anaheim's Disneyland Hotel and in similar locations in Chicago, New York and Miami.



SEGA's Route Girl Is A Japanese First

Miss Matsubara At Work

TOKYO — Twenty-one year old Kazuko Matsubara of SEGA is Japan's first music and games route girl, further invading the man's world of Tokyo where woman work as bus conductor and taxi drivers.

"At present I'm concentrating on changing records and making collections," she says, "but I'm studying how to repair and mechanically service equipment every night and hope to become a fully qualified mechanic before too long."

The 5'3" graduate of Omori High School planned to become a route girl after talking with one of sega's route men at a bowling alley two years ago. She then learned how to drive and studied the record industry.

She applied for a job at SEGA earlier this year and after a training period was assigned a route in Tokyo's Meguro and Ota wards. Miss Matsubara says that she heartily recommends the work to any girl and is pleased to be the first girl to enter the route man's domain.

Wolverton Visits SEGA

TOKYO — Mark Wolverton, son of Midway's Marcine Wolverton, recently toured the SEGA plants here before continuing on to his U.S. Air Force base near Seoul, Korea after spending a month's leave at home in the Chicago area.

Wolverton will return to Japan before mid-September to see Expo '70 and expects to return to the U.S. after 10 months. Before his assignment in South Korea, he spent a year in Vietnam.

After completing his Air Force tour he plans to study for a business administration degree and possibly to later enter the coin machine field.

While at SEGA. Wolverton discussed the Pacific coin machine industry with Ray Lemaire and said he was pleased to see several Bally and Midway games on the showroom floor and in the headquarters area warehouses.

EASTERN FLASHES

AROUND TOWN — A reminder to city ops that the Coin Operated Amusement Device (COAD) tax has to be paid no later than Aug. 20th. The 1969-70 COAD stamps expire July 31st but the License Dept. allows a 20 day grace period for payment of the 1970-71 tax. After that, ops have to pay a penalty. The Occupancy Tax already deadlined the end of last month, and we expect the License Dept. people will be comparing the two machine lists to "check the machine count" . . . Mutoscope's Larry Galante advised us he's already sold 350 'Big Strike' games and another delivery of 400 pieces is now shipping in from the NSM factory in Germany. The 350 mentioned machines are now on locations, many of which are department stores and travel terminals. Matter of fact, Larry said he got a big contract with the Greyhound Bus Co. to place 'Big Strike's' in their metro area terminals. Got to hand it to Larry, he not only pilots the Mutoscope factory but actively heads up the sales effort, doing a great job in both areas . . . MONY managing director Ben Chicofsky drove up to the Catskills last Thursday night to check out prospective resort locations for the 1971 combined associations convention. Next year's event will be held sometime in May but with demand for the better Catskill spots very strong among business convention groups, Ben's getting a very early start by selecting and reserving a site now.

ON THE AVENUE, TENTH AVENUE — Big story on the street is sale of the Munves Corp. to Ralph Hotkins and arcade op Joe Goldsmith. Visited with the new management group at the office last Tuesday and everything's rolling just great. Joe Munves and Dick Greenberg still functioning in their respective jobs, although Joe says he'll have more time now to devote to his favorite passion — designing amusement machines — now with Ralph doing the management work. Mike flew down to Hot Springs after the deal was finalized June 22nd for long-awaited vacation. Everyone very satisfied with the deal and all look forward to continued good business, plus the MOA and Parks Show exhibits this year . . . Up at Albert Simon's, the showroom is alive with some of the most exciting amusement games seen on the street in a long time. Among them, SEGA's newly-released 'Combat' tank game and the 'Windy the Clown' helium balloon inflating machine. The 'Combat' is a gas to play and ought to make a mint for amusement ops. 'Windy' is a very handsome machine but will probably make more on a non coin-op basis, requiring an attendant to inflate the balloons for the youngsters. Should make good dough in either case. Simon parts dept. manager Larry Feigenbaum informs us his Missus and daughter Sharon flew off to London last Wed. nite for a full month of antique hunting over there. Mrs. Feigenbaum is quite the professional antique expert and makes a good buck buying and selling this type of item . . . Business moving good at Runyon, with Uncle Louie Wolberg ringing up the machine sales at the showroom and sales manager Irv Kempner calling in more from the road. Kempy spent couple of days working the Connecticut territory early last week, then into Westchester. Oh yes, this "softball whiz" of the coin business proudly notes he and the other dealers won their match against the operators team at the recent Cigarette Operators outing in the Catskills. Runyon's well-known telephone receptionist Elsie Woebsie out last week on vacation.

THE JERSEY BOUNCE — The American Shuffleboard factory force was out on vacation last week but sales director Sol Lipkin info's the shipping dept. was on duty to supply dealers . . . Chatted with Bert Betti and Jerry Gordon at Betson Enterprises' North Bergen HQ. The two execs were checking equipment sales for first six months of 1970 and report an "excellent" across the board. Helping the effort, no doubt, was addition of the New York City area to the Betson territory on behalf of Smokeshop. The Jersey-based dealer's now making some good operator customers in the city because of the cigarette machine intro . . . All the grief down in Asbury apparently had no effect upon the arcade operations on or near the boardwalk, dealers report. Seems the rioters confined their violence to the resort's western district and left the amusement attractions alone. Sorry we couldn't have said the same for Newark during that holocaust year-before-last when millions of dollars in machines and lost collections and locations was suffered by the operating industry there.

THE BROOKLYN BEAT — Playmor's Harold Kaufman moving goodly number of 'Esquire' shuffles these days, says it's finest puck bowler on the market. The ChiCoin piece was long awaited by ops here and might have been along sooner except the factory line was so busy making the fabulous Speedway games. Incidentally, the Speedway was unveiled at last September's MOA Expo, here it is July, and the game is still in production. Easily one of the greatest success stories in coinbiz history . . . There's pool tables and then there's POOL TABLES and the Kaye Company's brand new Antique Apollo fills about every superlative you can think of. Checking into the new item at the Kaye factory here, the richly-styled version of the regular coin-op Apollo is simply gorgeous. Carved corners, tooled rails, elegant throughout. Howard Kaye said first shipments are out to his dealers and ops can now check the goods themselves. Made for that "high style" location, the Antique Apollo is in a class all its own.

UPSTATE ITEMS — Bronx-Manhattan music and games operator Sam (Musical Moments) Morrison had an amusing experience weekend before last while driving through Mountaindale, N.Y. in his route truck, to visit his wife and daughter vacationing in the Catskills. Mountaindale's citizens stopped in their tracks when the "Musical Moments" route truck motored thru town. Sam was curious why they found him so curious until he discovered they thought he was the vanguard truck for a convoy of rock musicians, hippies and others from the city coming up for big rock festival slated for the 11th. That event, however, was cancelled by some of the town fathers fearing another invasion similar to Woodstock. Sam says, tho, the rock concerts will begin anyway on the 17th and run each Saturday thru the summer in Mountaindale. Operators up there have already set up machines all over town in anticipation of the fun-seeking crowds, Sam says, adding "some company put up what looks like an instant-arcade in a couple of store fronts. These upstate operators don't let any grass grow under their feet," Sam joked.

GOING SOUTH — Harold E. Eller has been appointed vice president and general manager of National Rejectors Industries, according to a June 30th announcement by Willi Joeck, prexy of NRI International. Eller has taken up his duties at NRI's U.S. division headquarters in Hot Springs . . . News from another coin handling machine factory has it that Paul McCarthy was named president of the Keene Corporation's newly formed Coin Handling, Instrumentation and Pump Division, headquartered in Greenville, Tenn. Among the Division's products are coin sorters, counters and collection units used in transit systems.

CHICAGO CHATTER

The trucking strike-lockout is over! Differences were resolved during the July 4th weekend and by Monday morning (6) drivers and trucks were back on the road. Best news we've had here in about 12 weeks!

Bally-Midway's director of marketing Ross Scheer, aside from being "delighted" over the resumption of trucking schedules, was looking forward to a week of relaxation before returning to his office when the Bally plant reopens on the 20th. Although the factory is officially closed for vacation, Ross took advantage of the opportunity to catch up on some correspondence and paperwork before taking a little time off himself.

Another most happy fella is Bill DeSelm. The strike's end was welcomed news at Williams Electronics Inc. The factory will be on vacation from July 10 until August 3 but, Bill says, "What a great feeling it will be to resume production and not have to anticipate any trucking problems." . . . We'd like to pass along a word of praise from all of the factories here, to the countless customers who made life a heck of a lot easier during the strike, by picking up their own merchandise! . . .

ICMOA sends a reminder to all Illinois operators that the deadline for renewal of licenses on amusement machines is August 1. Renewal forms are available through the Illinois Revenue Department or the ICMOA office in Springfield. . . The Rock-Ola Mfg. Corp. factory resumed production this morning following a two-week vacation shutdown . . . Evelyn Dalrymple of Lieberman One Stop in Omaha reports heavy operator play in the area on a couple of new c&w singles—namely "Honky Tonk Man" by Bob Luman (Epic) and "Let's Go Fishin', The Girls Are Bitin' " by Charlie Walker (Epic) . . . Harold LaRoux, who heads up Empire Dist.'s Grand Rapids office, is on vacation this week.

The summer schedule is now in effect at Atlas Music Co. Distrib's offices and showrooms will be closed on Saturdays during July and August. Had a chance to say "hi" to Stan Levin! . . . Bally ad man Herb Jones, who was recently released from the hospital, has had a slight relapse and is confined to bed at home. Not one to waste time, Herb reports that he has a small drawing board propped up in bed and is currently working on promotion for some of the upcoming items from Bally! . . . Empire Dist.'s veepee Joe Robbins is on a biz trip to Tokyo. He departed last Tuesday and was scheduled to stay in Japan through the 10th and then head for Manila.

The D. Gottlieb & Co. plant closed for vacation on Friday, July 10 and will re-open on Monday, July 27 . . . The Seeburg Corp. displayed its new home stereo music products line at the recent Consumer Electronics Show in New York. Firm's Chicago factory is presently closed for vacation and will resume production on July 27 . . . Nice talking to Mr. R. M. (Mac) Lambeth of ABC Popcorn Co. here in Chicago. Firm distributes the Popcorn machine which, according to Mr. Lambeth, is developing into quite a popular item.

MOA's secretary Les Montooth has been doing a lot of traveling lately, attending various state association meetings across the country and, in some instances, speaking before the different groups . . . Browning Bryant, the 13-year-old singer RCA Victor is publicizing, was one of the first artists scheduled to perform at this year's MOA banquet show. Youngster has a new single on RCA titled "One Time In A Million" b/w "Tina".

MILWAUKEE MENTIONS

Local radio stations WEMP and WNUW just issued the first copy of the new "AD Ventures" newsletter to be published monthly by Consolidated Broadcasting Corp. . . Comedienne Joan Rivers is currently headlining the show in the Lake Geneva Playboy Club—a very swingin' place, especially, at this time of the year! . . . The Frigidaire ice machine and the Rock-Ola "442" and "443" model phonographs were among the biggest sellers at Hastings Dist. Co. this past week. In addition to their other duties Sam and Jack Hastings are taking turns at the phones while the receptionist is on vacation. General manager Wally Bohrer is helping out, too, when he's not on the road.

At press time the Milwaukee Coin Machine Operators Assn. general membership meeting was about to get underway at The Chalet in West Ellis . . . Rhinelander operator Ernie Fieght has his two sons working the route with him during their summer vacation from school. He says they're quite a big help . . . The new office furniture arrived at Empire Dist. in Green Bay and we understand the premises look positively gorgeous! . . . Bob Rondeau says a new Italian import, the Marcana football, is developing into a big item for him.

John Jankowski of Radio Doctors was on vacation last week so we talked to Robin Hauber who gave us a list of singles local operators are favoring. Among them, Henry Mancini's "Love Theme From Sunflower" (RCA), "In The Summertime" by Mungo Jerry (Janus), "No Arms Can Ever Hold You" by Bobby Vinton (Epic), "Everything A Man Could Ever Need" by Glen Campbell (Capitol) and "Que Sera Sera" by Mary Hopkin (Apple).

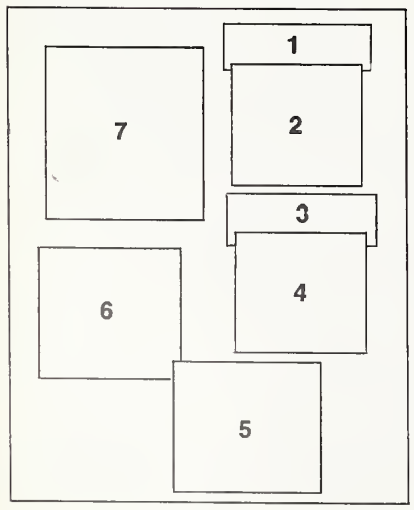
We didn't come to visit...we live here.



RCA's no sometime label in the world of R & B. From the way our established stars get bigger and bigger, and our new ones keep developing, it looks like we've got a long term lease.

1,2 The Friends of Distinction– "Real Friends" (LSP-4313), their latest album is a real winner. And so is the hit single it features: "Love Or Let Me Be Lonely" (74-0319).

3,4 The Main Ingredient–Their new album, "The Main Ingredient L.T.D." (LSP-4253) stocks among other things a smash single, "You've Been My Inspiration" (74-0340).

7,5 Carolyn Franklin–The way to come off a fantastic engagement at the Apollo Theatre is with a great new single, "All I Want to Be Is Your Woman" She's also got a best selling album in "Chain Reaction" (LSP-4317).

6 Nina Simone–The Empress of Soul gets hotter and hotter. And this cookin' album says it all. "The Best of Nina Simone" (LSP-4374) is a must for all her fans and new initiates.

7 The Fabulous Fiestas–Their brand new single "Keep It in the Family" c/w "One Hurt Deserves Another" (74-0364), isn't letting anyone down. A great sound and a great beat that doesn't let up.

Livin', breathin', growin' soul.
